What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit B.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement and area development agreement require you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration, and/or litigation only in Utah. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Utah than in your own state.
2. Mandatory Minimum Payment. You must make minimum royalty and advertising fund payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
3. Supplier Control. You must purchase all or nearly all of the inventory or supplies that are necessary to operate your business from the franchisor, its affiliates, or suppliers that the franchisor designates, at prices the franchisor or they set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchise business.
4. Financial Condition. The franchisor's financial condition as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21) calls into question the franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.
5. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both you and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

If you are a corporation, partnership, or other entity, “you” may also include the franchisee’s owners.

The Franchisor

We are a North Dakota corporation that was incorporated in 1990. Our principal business address is 3126 Quarry Road, Suite F, Park City, Utah 84098. Our telephone number is 435-647-9000. We currently do business under our corporate name and as “Athletic Republic®.” We will accept service of process at our principal business address, except for the states listed in Exhibit B that include an agent for service of process our agent for service of process for each such state shall be that listed for the particular state. We were formerly known as Acceleration Products, Inc. until April 2020, when we changed our corporate name to Athletic Republic, Inc. We have no predecessor or parent company, nor do we have any affiliates that offer franchises in this or any other line of business or provide products or services to our franchisees.

Since our inception we have been studying and developing evidence-based performance sports training standards, programs, and equipment to help athletes of all ages assess their capabilities, maximize their full athletic potential, and improve upon athletic skills defined by speed, power, strength, quickness, agility, proprioceptive awareness, stability, stamina, and overall fitness. We started operating our first training center in 1990.

We began offering franchises for sale in the United States in 2005. Prior to 2005, we offered a license to use our proprietary products. Our existing licensees compete with our franchisees, but do not have overlapping Protected Territories; however, their businesses are not associated with our Trademarks, Service Mark, Trade Name, Logotype, Advertising, or other commercial symbols. We ceased offering licenses for our proprietary products in 2005, but still offer renewal terms to existing licenses and, from time to time, enter into license arrangements with colleges and universities. In 2007 we registered and established the Athletic Republic® brand name for the franchise system.

As of the end of 2025, we had 13 licensees and 41 open franchisees offering our training programs in the United States and 5 international operators in Australia, Japan and Canada for a total of 59 Training Centers. Additionally, we have 7 U.S. franchises that were not open as of December 31, 2025. We have no other business activities. We do not sell and have never sold franchises in other lines of business.

The Franchise Offered

A “Free-Standing Training Center” is a Training Center that is located as a stand-alone business in an in-line retail, light industrial, flex space, office warehouse, mixed commercial or similar location (typically 3,000 – 6,000 sq. ft.) and may offer, or rent space within the Training Center to, complimentary services, such as: Physical Therapy, Chiropractic Services, Sports Team Offices, Sports Nutrition Counseling, Sports Psychology, Indoor Cycling, Turf / Court / Cage Rental, Birthday Parties, and other related businesses.

You will operate the Franchised Business from a location designated by you and approved by us (the “Franchised Location”). The address of the Training Center and the Franchised Location will be the same.

We also offer to qualified prospects the right to develop multiple Training Centers within a protected territory (“Development Territory”) under the terms of an Area Development Agreement (“Area Development Agreement”). If you sign an Area Development Agreement, you will sign a separate Franchise Agreement for each Training Center developed under your Area Development Agreement, the terms of which may be materially different than those contained in the franchise agreement attached to this disclosure document.

The market for businesses offering training services is well developed in most areas. Your competitors include other national sports training chains, local sports training centers, boutique fitness studios, sports camps, national and local fitness centers, and local coaches. The Training Programs are age appropriate for athletes interested in improving their athletic capabilities by using the products offered by Athletic Republic®. The Franchised Businesses are operated year-round and serve youth, teens, college, club and professional athletes, as well as adults interested in improving overall fitness and athletic performance. Customer sales and athlete participation may be seasonal by sport.

There are no industry specific national regulations applicable to the operation of performance sports training centers. Many states have laws and regulations applicable to training center contracts, operations and licenses. There are state and federal laws and regulations that regulate the collection of fees. ITEM 4.
BANKRUPTCY

INITIAL FEES

Initial Franchise Fees

The following is a description of our standard initial fees:

On the date of the signing of the Franchise Agreement, you shall pay us a lump sum, nonrefundable initial franchise fee of $55,000 for one Training Center (the “Initial Franchise Fee”).

If (a) you already operate an Athletic Republic® Training Center, (b) you will open and operate one or more Satellite Training Centers, (c) the Satellite Training Center will feature the use of at least one Athletic Republic® Super Running Treadmill, Hockey Treadmill, PlyoFloor, PlyoPlatform, PlyoPress Machine, or MultiHip Machine and (d) the Satellite Training Center will be open for the delivery of Training Programs less than 36 weeks out of any 52 week period during the Term of the Franchise Agreement, you will pay a one-time Satellite Training Fee of $5,000 for each Satellite location in addition to the Initial Franchise Fee that you would otherwise pay according to the preceding paragraphs.

If you operate a Satellite Training Center, you may request that we grant you the right to convert to a Training Center and receive a Protected Territory that does not conflict with any other Training Center’s Protected Territory, subject to the terms and conditions in the Franchise Agreement. If you make the request to convert a Satellite Training Center to a Training Center, you will pay us an additional Initial Franchise Fee equal to the difference between the Initial Franchise Fee as detailed in the then current Franchise Agreement, less the Satellite Training Fee.

Equipment Purchases

If you operate a Training Center, you must pay us for producing, or procuring all recommended equipment which we estimate will cost between $130,000 and $230,000, depending on the athlete through-put model you select. This amount includes the first two-year subscription expenses associated with the 3PQ foreceptate software. After the initial two years you will be responsible for paying the 3PQ software subscription costs. The Equipment costs do not include the $38,000 fee for on-boarding support subscriptions, and services (known as our Business Acceleration Program or ‘BAP’), the $5,000 payment for Marketing and Promotional Materials, the $15,000 allocation towards Interior Branding; $10,000 towards Membership Advertising, and the $2,500 allocation towards Grand Opening Marketing that are described below. The purchase of the equipment requires a payment equal to 50% of the costs due at the time you order the equipment with the remaining 50%, plus estimated freight, transit insurance and installation charges, due two weeks prior to shipping the equipment to you. The amount of equipment you will buy will depend, in part, in the Training Programs you intend to offer, the size of the Training Center and the desired athlete training capacity. The cost of equipment may increase depending upon the strength and sports-specific equipment you select for your Training Center.

You will be required to pay us between $4,000 and $20,000 for the installation of your training equipment and treadmill system(s), and between $5,000 and $15,000 for transit insurance, packaging and freight charges incurred in the shipping of the recommended equipment. If the ship date changes less than one week prior to the pre-scheduled ship date or if the Training Center is not ready to receive and install equipment, meaning that all tasks on Training Center Readiness Report have not been completed prior to the delivery of the Fitness Equipment, then you will agree to pay us a surcharge of $5,000, included in the high-end estimated range for the equipment installation, to cover the additional costs we will incur to install your Fitness Equipment. The estimated fees are payable two weeks prior to shipping the equipment and the balance reconciled, based on actual expenses incurred, within 60 days of the equipment's delivery. See Items 7, 8 and 11 for more information on the payments referenced in this paragraph.

You must pay to us a non-refundable “On-Boarding Fee” of $38,000 when you sign the Franchise Agreement. This pre-paid fee covers access to the pre-opening Business Acceleration Program (“BAP”), which currently includes the following: Project management support including weekly calls with us during the pre-opening process and the first two months after you open for business (up to 30 calls); then bi-weekly calls (as needed) with us for the third, fourth, fifth, and six months after you open for business; subscription to the Basecamp Project Management software during the pre-opening period; access to our monthly webinars and office hours during the pre-opening period; use of the Athletic Republic LockerRoom (our System intranet) during the pre-opening process; site selection assistance from our selected real estate firm; 2D training center test fits with equipment and turf lay-outs for up to three proposed sites for your Franchised Business location (if you propose more than three sites, you must pay us $500 per additional test fit) locations; Low Voltage 2D floor plan; access to AR Academy for owner, manager and trainer education; equipment selection support and access to distributor pricing for approved suppliers prior to opening; up to four AR email addresses prior to opening; Training Center’s Website development, construction, subscription and Search Engine Optimization (“SEO”) during the pre-opening process; use of the CRM system through the pre-opening process; Lead Management support through the pre-opening process and during the 30-day period after you open; set-up and subscription for the Baseline scheduling / POS software and the KPI Dashboard software during the pre-opening process; set-up and subscription for the Athlete Assessment software during the pre-opening process; recommended position descriptions, Responsibility Matrix during the pre-opening staff hiring process; AR Lead Instructor to be on site (at AR’s expense) for 4 days during the first week of the training center’s soft-opening; AR Sales Manager to be on site (at AR’s expense) for 3 days during the second week of the training center’s soft-opening; and AR sales team for lead management during the 8-week presale process prior to the Grand Opening and 4 weeks after Grand Opening.-

The costs associated with the Training Center’s Website, emails, LockerRoom access, certain software subscriptions and digital ad placement become part of the BOS (Business Operating System) Fees after the Training Center has opened.

Sports Flooring Purchases

You will be required to pay us between $10,000 and $50,000 that will be applied towards the purchase of vulcanized rubber flooring for the equipment area, and (knitted or non-in-fill) synthetic turf for the functional space.

Grand Opening Marketing

Included in your start-up costs is a payment of $2,500 to us that will be applied towards your Grand Opening Marketing, Social Media, and Public Relations activities that we will direct with your input.

Area Development Fees

If you sign an Area Development Agreement, you must pay us in full a nonrefundable development fee (the “Development Fee”) equal to the Initial Franchise Fee multiplied by the number of Training Centers you agree to develop under the Area Development Agreement. If you sign an Area Development Agreement you must develop a minimum of 2 Training Centers. We offer a discount on the Initial Franchise Fee when you purchase more than one Training Center under an Area Development Agreement. Two (2) Training Center franchises may be purchased for a Development Fee of $100,000, three (3) Training Center franchises for $135,000, or four (4) Training Center Franchises may be purchased for a Development Fee of $165,000. Each additional Training Center franchise, after you have purchased four may be added to an Area Development Agreement for an additional $30,000 each. Upon the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement we have the right to purchase, or designate a third party to purchase, all or any portion of the equipment purchased by you in the Equipment Purchase Agreement and any other equipment and any accessories that you subsequently purchased from us or that are required by us.
Interest Charges	18% or highest lawful rate if lower.	Immediately if payments 30 or more days past due.	This charge is in addition to other remedies such as late payment fees.

Notes:

(1) All fees are uniformly imposed by us and are payable to us unless otherwise noted. All fees are non-refundable. Franchisees executing franchise agreements in other years may pay different fees or different amounts.

(2) Minimum Royalty payments are paid every week. At the end of each month, the “Royalty Balance” will be determined by multiplying the Training Center’s total Gross Sales for the month period by 7% to determine the “Monthly Royalty Amount”, then the total Minimum Royalties paid during the month are deducted from the Monthly Royalty Amount to determine the remaining Royalties due to us on or before the 15th day of the following month after the prior month ends. Royalty payments for Satellite Training Centers are a fixed amount. We retain the right to modify the Royalty reporting process and payment schedule against your Gross Sales, at any point in time.

“Gross Sales” includes the total revenues and receipts collected by you from the sale of any of the Products or any services and merchandise related to the Products or in any way utilizing any part of our proprietary Manuals or protocols or adaptations of any part of our proprietary Manuals or protocols, or use of the Athletic Republic® Brand regardless of whether sold in your Training Center or at any other place, and whether under any of the Trademarks, Patent Rights or otherwise, including any license, rental and use fees related to the Products. Gross Sales excludes sales taxes. Currently, Gross Sales only includes revenues from training activities or sports practices that utilize any of the Products or in any way utilizing any part of our proprietary Manuals, or any services and merchandise related to the Products or in any way utilizing any part of our proprietary Manuals, protocols or adaptations of any part of our proprietary Manuals or protocols or use of the Athletic Republic® Brand, the services that fall within the definition of Gross Sales may change as our System evolves.

“Product” means any use of products, Training Program and any services that are offered by you, including all personal training, team training, and small group training, inside or anywhere outside of the Training Center, using any piece of equipment, information, training, products, protocols, the adaptation of protocols (by us or by you), services or know-how that we provide to you pursuant to this Agreement, as we may modify and change them from time to time, regardless of whether such products, training, or services are offered by you for any portion of any training, athlete assessment and testing, or rehabilitation program under the Athletic Republic® Brand or any of the Trademarks or otherwise, and includes, without limitation, any products, training or services provided by you using any part of the Manuals, protocols, adaptation of protocols (by us or by you), branded apparel, nutritional supplements purchased through our national affiliation or any piece of equipment that we provide to you or require you to have at the Training Center.

(3) You must sign an electronic transfer of funds authorization to authorize and direct your bank or financial institution to transfer electronically to our account and to charge to your account all amounts due to us. Every Tuesday we will send a request to your bank or financial institution to pay us the Minimum Royalties and Marketing Fees owed for the prior week. You shall not revoke the electronic transfer of funds authorization without giving us prior written notice and without first setting up a different electronic transfer of funds authorization under the same terms and conditions of the one being revoked.

(4) A Satellite Training Center is a temporary or seasonal business which is open less than 36 weeks out of any 52-week period. Royalty Fees are due every week the Satellite Training Center is open.

(5) If you relocate the Franchised Location to a new location without our prior written consent or without fully complying with the requirements set forth in Section 7 of the Franchise Agreement, such relocation will be void, your interest in the Franchise Agreement will be voluntarily abandoned, and the Franchise Agreement will automatically terminate. Circumstances under which we may approve relocation include those cases in which the market conditions and the dynamics surrounding the original Franchised Location have changed significantly. You do not have the right to relocate if you lose the right to occupy the Franchised Location premises because of the cancellation of your lease due to your breach.

(6) If you choose to transfer your training center to another approved party, you will pay us a $10,000 Transfer Fee and the transferee will pay us the On-Boarding Fee of $38,000 at the time the new owner signs the Franchise Agreement.

(7) If the audit shows an understatement of Gross Sales or Royalties or a variance of 5% or more from data reported to us in respect to any other item that is material to the computation of fees or to the analysis of the operation you must pay for the cost of the audit or evaluation, any other related costs that we may incur (including auditors' and attorneys' fees). You also pay for any audit or evaluation that is performed within 3 years from the date of the evaluation that shows the understatement, as well as any other costs that we may incur (including auditors' and attorneys' fees). You must submit to us monthly and annual Financial Reports, directly or through a financial reporting tool we select, that document Training Center Revenue, including total monthly and annual Gross Sales, and Expenses, along with a calculation of the Monthly Royalty Amount and remaining Royalty Balance by the 15th of the month following the end of the prior month. The payment of the remaining Royalty Balance is due to us with the calculation of the Royalty Amount. All financial information provided to us must be presented in the form required from time to time by us in writing.

(8) The Business Operating Systems (“BOS”) is a collection of third party software used to operate the Training Center and includes the set-up, configuration and subscription to: a) the Athletic Republic Technology (“ART”) suite of services, which includes; On-line Scheduling, Point-of-Sale and Reporting software, and Athlete Assessment capabilities, including video analysis software; and access to the Athletic Training Protocols; and b) the Sales and Marketing suite of services, which includes: Website Development, Hosting, Management and SEO; Customer Relationship Management (CRM) software, the KPI (Key Performance Indicator) dashboard; and four (4) email accounts. Additional email accounts may be purchased for $5 per month. Access to the LockerRoom, our Intranet service, and the Athletic Republic Academy, our online learning system, are included in the BOS fees. The monthly fees may increase (or decrease) as costs and services change over time. You agree to accept the change in monthly pricing as long as we provide 60 days’ notice of any change in cost or service level. Any costs or revenue associated with the Athletic Republic APP have not been determined nor factored into the BOS program but may be included at a later date. On the 5th of each month, we will send a request to your bank or financial institution to pay us the BOS Fee owed for that month.

The domain name of your website will be www.city.athleticrepublic.com (“city” refers to a city within your Protected Territory). We will assign your social media identifiers which will reflect a similar format and be consistent with our Brand Standards. Any deviation from the described website name or social media identifiers must be approved in advance in writing by us. You may not own a domain name or social media identifiers that include any part of any of our Trademarks.

Notes:

ATHLETIC REPUBLIC® 2026 FDD

(1) We do not offer direct financing to franchisees for any items. All amounts that you pay to us or our affiliates are nonrefundable. Third party suppliers will decide if payments to them are refundable. None of the amounts above include state or local sales taxes, which you may need to pay. You shall be required to pay all taxes, including personal property taxes, based on or in any way deriving from the Franchise Agreement or the purchase of any equipment from us.

(2) The Initial Franchise fee of $55,000 is for the rights to one franchise. If you decide to purchase the rights to additional Athletic Republic franchises, the price per additional franchise will be reduced, as detailed in Item 5, Area Development Fees. The High-End disclosed includes the $5,000 Satellite Training Fee to include the right to operate a single Satellite Training Center.

(3) The selection of a location for an Athletic Republic Training Center typically includes flex/light-industrial/warehouse space, strip retail, big box and power centers, multi-use commercial, municipal sports centers, sport training complexes, ice rinks, sports medicine centers, health clubs and physical therapy clinics. Training Centers which operate in light-industrial/flex spaces generally pay less per square foot than those in hospitals, strip malls or sports training complexes. Franchisees should attempt to locate themselves in locations where there are multiple middle schools, junior high schools and senior high schools within a 10-mile / 25-minute radius of the Training Center.

Athletic Republic has an affiliation with a national real estate broker who you may choose to utilize for Training Center site identification, selection and the negotiation of a letter of Intent (LOI). You are responsible for hiring and compensating a real estate lawyer to review the lease. Any pre-payment of rent or security deposit is your responsibility.

An average franchised Athletic Republic sports performance training center located in either a flex / light industrial location or remerchandised strip retail center contains between 3,000 sq. ft. - 5,000 sq. ft. of space. The proto-typical 4,500 sq. ft. Athletic Republic Training Center includes functional training space to accommodate the specialized equipment, to comfortably train 30 athletes at one time, reception/waiting area, offices, bathrooms, changing areas, showers, room for athlete recovery and the option to sub-lease space to a physical therapist or sports nutritionist or another complimentary third-party service provider. The functional training area must have ceiling heights of at least 12' and have access to either: a) a 220-240 volt/3 phase/20-amp power supply to accommodate each of the AR super treadmills; or b) a 220-240 volt/1 phase/30-amp power supply to accommodate each of the AR-Woodway super treadmills.

If you do not own adequate space for your franchise, you must lease or purchase the land and building for the franchise. The rental and purchase price of real estate varies greatly depending on the market and the size of the leased or purchased area and we cannot provide you with accurate estimates on the costs of renting or purchasing the space for the Franchised Business. Therefore, this Item 7 does not include the costs of renting or purchasing such space or any security deposits that a landlord may require. Your initial investment could be considerably larger than the total initial investment stated herein depending on the price of real estate in your area.

Some metropolitan markets with above average real estate costs (i.e., Chicago, Miami, New York City, Long Island, Los Angeles, Orange County, San Francisco Bay Area, Seattle) may have higher initial investment costs than what is provided here.

(4) We will provide or procure the Proprietary and Recommended Equipment to support Athletic Republic's Acceleration, Ignition, Adult Fitness, Endurance, Return 2 Play, Enhanced, Personal, Active, Tactical, Team and certain other training programs we currently offer and an athlete training through-put of 20 to 40 athletes at one time. Offering Hockey Training with the AR Hockey Treadmill or purchasing other optional equipment would require an additional investment.

There is no refund on any amount paid for the required equipment from us whether as the result of a cancellation of an order or any other reason. The AR Super Treadmill, the AR-Woodway Super Treadmill, and the Generation III Hockey Treadmill include a shut-off device that is activated annually, or we may activate it if you default on any payments owed to us. We will provide you the code to reactivate the equipment once you are current on all payments owed to us and are otherwise in full compliance with your obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

Given the supply chain challenges and the variability of the price for steel and international tariffs AR has the right to modify the equipment pricing and equipment selection at any point prior to you placing the equipment order, and the ability to modify pricing and product mix is compliant with the terms and conditions detailed in the Equipment Purchase Agreement.

(5) The Business Acceleration Program (“BAP”) or on-boarding package includes: our support from Franchise Agreement signing through the start-up cycle and until your Training Center has reached the 6 month mark post-opening; and shall include: Project Management support including weekly calls with us during the pre-opening process and the first two months after you open for business (up to 30 calls); then bi-weekly calls (as needed) with us for the third, fourth, fifth, and six months after you open for business; subscription to the Basecamp Project Management software during the pre-opening period; access to our monthly webinars and open office hours during the pre-opening period; and use of the Athletic Republic LockerRoom (our System intranet) during the pre-opening process; site selection assistance from our selected real estate firm; 2D training center test fits with equipment and turf lay-outs for up to three proposed sites for your Franchised Business location (if you propose more than three sites, you must pay us $500 per additional test fit) locations; Low Voltage 2D floor plan; access to AR Academy for owner, manager and trainer education prior to opening; equipment selection support and access to distributor pricing for approved suppliers prior to opening; up to four AR email addresses prior to opening; Training Center’s Website development, construction, subscription and SEO during the pre-opening process; use of the CRM system through the pre-opening process; Lead Management support through the 8-week pre-opening process and during the 4-week period after you open; set-up and subscription for the Baseline scheduling / POS software and the KPI Dashboard software during the pre-opening process; set-up and subscription for the Athlete Assessment software during the pre-opening process; recommended position descriptions, Responsibility Matrix during the pre-opening staff hiring process; AR Lead Instructor to be on site (at AR’s expense) for 4 days during the first week of the training center’s soft-opening, AR Sales Manager to be on site (at AR’s expense) for 3 days during the second week of the training center’s soft-opening.

The costs associated with the Training Center’s Website, emails, LockerRoom access, certain software subscriptions and digital ad placement become part of the BOS (Business Operating System) Fees after the Training Center has opened.

During the pre-sale process prior to Grand Opening and for 30 days after the Grand Opening, the AR sales team will provide sales support services to groom and manage customer leads, book training trials and selling membership, as they work with the Training Center Manager and staff to become proficient in marketing and selling AR Products. After 4-weeks of Post Grand Opening Lead Management / sales support you will have the option to continue with the third-party support service at your own expense.

(6) Your $5,000 pre-paid Marketing and Promotional Materials include: Collateral Materials, (i.e., Free Trial Cards, Business Cards, Brochures); Promotional Materials, (i.e., Pens, Pads, and Folders); Premiums, (i.e., Water Bottles and T-shirts); Staff Apparel; and a Special Event Kit that includes a 10’x10’ branded tent, table skirt, and flag.

(7) Our design team will create an interior brand plan for your training center that allocates $12,000 towards the purchase and installation of interior branding elements, graphics, and displays, including: a brushed aluminum Athletic Republic sign to be placed behind your front desk; two Athletic Republic entry rug; a 6' x 6' retail display with merchandising accessories; an Athletic Republic Clock; and other wall graphics you select for production from our national print vendor. You may choose to spend additional funds on interior branding, beyond the $15,000 pre-paid interior branding investment.

(8) With your input, we will construct, execute, develop creative, purchase media, and manage the initial membership sales effort for your Training Center's Grand Opening, with the $10,000 you have pre-paid for Grand Opening Marketing. Beginning 6 to 8 weeks before Grand Opening and extending up to 4 weeks post opening and depending on the market and time of year, the Grand Opening marketing plan may include Google, Facebook and Instagram lead-generation advertising; Pay-per-Click display advertising; You may choose to spend additional funds beyond the $10,000 pre-paid Grand Opening Marketing investment.

You are also responsible for committing $2,500 towards local Grand Opening outreach, Public Relations; VIP and Grand Opening events; and other more traditional media purchases.

(9) All Training Center equipment will be packaged for transport per our specifications and shipped either from our production facility in Salt Lake City, Utah, directly from an AR preferred supplier, or from one of our equipment storage facilities located across the U.S. to your Training Center. You will pre-pay the estimated packaging, shipping, and transit insurance charges two weeks prior to shipment. When we have received final billing, we will invoice / reconcile with you the final packaging, transit and insurance charges, usually within 60 days after equipment delivery. Supply chain challenges and the cost of fuel may have a direct impact on increasing the cost of transportation.

(10) Our technicians will be on-site at your Training Center to off-load, unpack, position, and install the Equipment in your Training Center. The installation process typically takes 3-5 days and both the amount of time and associated cost to complete will depend on the amount of equipment provided, the accessibility of the space, the access to an overhead/garage door, and having to navigate curbs, stairs, single doors, elevators, and low height doors, access to the appropriate power service, internet, heating/cooling and water, and completion status of the Training Center. You will pre-pay the estimated installation charges (labor, transportation, hotel and other direct expenses) two weeks prior to shipping the Fitness Equipment. When we have received final billing, we will invoice / reconcile with you the final installation charges, usually within 60 days after Equipment delivery.

You must complete and return our 'Training Center Readiness Report' no less than 3 weeks prior to the equipment ship date, to verify the Training Center is ready to receive and install the Fitness Equipment. Should the Training Center not be ready to receive and install the Fitness Equipment, the ship date may be changed up to two weeks prior to the pre-published ship date without any additional charge. If the ship date changes less than one week prior to the pre-scheduled ship date or if the Training Center is not ready to receive and install equipment, meaning that all tasks on Training Center Readiness Report have not been completed prior to the delivery of the Fitness Equipment, then you will agree to pay us a surcharge of $5,000 to cover the additional costs we will incur to install your Fitness Equipment.

(11) You may purchase vulcanized rubber flooring for the equipment area, and (knitted or non-in-fill) turf for the functional space, through us from one of our national sports flooring vendors. The installed costs for these surfaces range from $8 to $18 per sq. ft. Incorporating hardwood (basketball/volleyball) sports flooring and other surfaces into the floor plan may increase the cost of your Training Center's flooring. You may purchase carpet or carpet tile locally, polished concrete, tile, or other synthetic surfaces for installation, at your expense, for the entry / reception, bathrooms, storage, office, breakroom, and other non-training areas.

(12) Remodeling, improving, or building out the Training Center is an expense that may be all or partially covered in your real estate lease under a term similar to tenant improvement allowance and defined in the 'Landlord Work Letter' that would be incorporated into the real estate lease. The estimates provided are for a Training Center space of 4,500 square feet located in a light-industrial or remerchandised strip center and are in addition to the landlord's contribution to tenant improvements or off-sets with Free-Rent.

(13) The size and lighting of the exterior building sign and any pylon or directional sign(s) will depend upon the exterior configuration of your space, local zoning codes, and the building complex regulations. Make sure to understand these requirements and permitting process before signing a lease.

(14) The Low Voltage Systems may include: Internet Service and Wi-Fi hotspots positioned through the Training Center; TVs, other than for the Treadmill Feedback package; Phone System; Security Cameras and Recording Device; and Sound System with Music Delivery System that also clears music rights.

(15) The estimate includes the front desk, reception area / waiting room furniture, office furniture, front desk and office computers and printer.

(16) You must procure and maintain throughout the term of the Franchise Agreement insurance in such amounts as set forth in the Franchise Agreement (see Item 8). The estimate is for approximately 50% of an annual premium. The cost of insurance will vary based on policy limits, type of policies procured, any lease requirements, nature and value of physical assets, number of employees, square footage, contents of the business, state worker’s compensation requirements, the Training Center’s location, and other factors bearing on risk exposure.

(17) The wages stated for employees are estimated wages for any staff hired prior to opening and do not include taxes or benefits.

(18) The Training Center’s General Manager and Sports Performance Training Director (or ‘Head Trainer’) must attend and successfully complete Athletic Republic Academy Level 1 and Level 2 training programs before the franchise opening. The Sports Performance Training Director must attend and complete the Level 3 certification as soon as the course is offered after they have been hired. The Owner and/or General/Assistant Manager must complete GM Training prior to opening the Training Center. Anyone training athletes in your Franchised Business must successfully complete the Athletic Republic Academy Level 1 training program before providing any Athletic Republic® training services. See Item 11 for more information about training. Other employees may participate in the training programs. The costs for our Level 1 or Level 2 online training are included in your Initial Franchise Fee and BOS Services, but you must cover the registration fees for attending the Level 3 training for the first time. .

(19) This estimate is based on our over twenty years of experience with operating expenses for the first three months of operations, including labor costs, marketing and advertising not covered by the Business Acceleration Program package, and other variable costs. The low range in the estimate assumes you are converting an existing sports or gym facility to a Training Center, or adding a Training Center to an existing, operational facility. Rent is not included in the calculation, as we expect you will receive free rent for the first several months of operation. These figures are estimates. We recommend that you have additional funds available to pay any security deposits and other activities to fund your business. We also recommend you establish a line of credit, or secure a business credit card for post-open operating expenses, until the business consistently reaches monthly cash-flow break-even .

Along with other approval criteria, the supplier must have the ability to provide the product or service, on a national basis, to at least 50% of our franchisees. We do not maintain written approval criteria and, therefore, this criterion is not available to you or your proposed supplier.

If we have not designated an approved supplier for an item or supply, you may acquire such item or supply from the vendor of your choice. All inventories, products, materials and other items and supplies used in the operation of the Franchised Business that are not included in the approved supplies or approved suppliers' lists must conform to the specifications and standards we establish from time to time.

We do not provide you with any type of accounting or report on these amounts or their uses.

Except as listed in this Item 8, we do not negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers for the benefit of our franchisees and retain the absolute right to select different suppliers at our discretion. We and our affiliates reserve the right to derive revenue and other material consideration from any of the purchases (items or services) that our System franchisees are required to make in connection with the Franchised Business.

Time to Open

We estimate that it will typically take between 4 and 11 months from the time you sign the Franchise Agreement until the opening of your business. You must order your Fitness Equipment from us within 250 days from the date of execution of the Franchise Agreement and begin the operation of your business within 365 days from the date of execution of the Franchise Agreement and if you fail to do so, we may terminate your Franchise Agreement and you will lose any amounts previously paid (Franchise Agreement, Sections 2.B, 8.C, and 13.B). Royalty Fees, Marketing Fees and BOS Fees will begin to be paid on the earlier of the Training Center's Opening Date or 365 days after executing the Franchise Agreement. The factors that affect the time for opening include: the site selection, contracting for the lease or purchase or construction of the building, conforming the premises to applicable ordinances and codes, acquisition of the equipment and signage, obtaining all necessary insurance and permits, arranging any necessary financing, completion of hiring and the training of the training center staff and the build-out of the space.

If you sign an Area Development Agreement you must begin operation of the first Training Center within 365 days from the date of execution of the first Franchise Agreement and the second Training Center must begin operation within 2 years from the date of execution of the first Franchise Agreement, or as defined by the Development Schedule in the Area Development Agreement. The intervals for opening individual training centers depend upon the negotiated Development Schedule and are generally 4 and 11 months for the first Training Center and pursuant to the Development Schedule for subsequent Training Centers (Area Development Agreement, Section 3 and Appendix B). If a developer fails to comply with the Development Schedule, we may terminate the Area Development Agreement and the Franchise Agreements, reduce the number of Training Centers the developer has the right to develop, terminate or reduce the protected territory for each Franchise Agreement that has not opened per the Development Schedule, repurchase any Training Centers open by you under the Area Development Agreement, reduce the Protected Territory under the Franchise Agreements executed under the Area Development Agreement, claim liquidated damages equal to $25,000 for each Training Center the developer failed to open, charge Royalty Fees, Marketing Fees and BOS Fees per the applicable agreements, or exercise any other rights and remedies that we may have (Area Development Agreement, Section 7). We will approve sites for additional Training Centers developed under your Development Agreement using our then-current site selection criteria.

During the operation of your business, we will:

1. Approve vendors, products and services and regularly inform you as to vendor changes, new approved vendors and new preferred vendor contracts (Franchise Agreement – Section 8.C).
2. Make available additional training which we deem advisable to familiarize you and your team on changes and updates in the franchise system (Franchise Agreement – Section 9.C).
3. Make available to you from time to time all changes, improvements, and additions to the franchise system (Franchise Agreement – Sections 8.E and 8.F).
4. Provide you with all supplements and modifications to the Manuals (Franchise Agreement – Sections 8.E and 8.F).
5. If you have some unusual or unique operating problems or if you have a specific situation in which you require assistance, you may request from us to provide assistance to deal with the problem or situation you have, and we may, but have no obligation to, provide you this assistance. If we agree to provide you the assistance, we will charge you a $500 daily fee plus you must reimburse us for all the expenses we incur in providing you such assistance. (Franchise Agreement – Section 9.F)

Advertising Programs

We have instituted a national marketing program (the “Marketing Fund”), which is supported by your Training Center's payment of a fixed Marketing Fee $100 every week. You must start paying the Marketing Fee beginning on the earlier of the day on which we deliver to you the required equipment to operate your Franchised Business or the 365th day after the execution of the Franchise Agreement. We reserve the right to increase the amount annually upon 30 days written notice to you, as long as we don't increase the amount of such payment more than one time every three years. The Marketing Fees will be placed in a Marketing Fund. We will not directly contribute to the Marketing Fund for any franchisor owned training centers.

The Marketing Fund is not a trust or escrow account, and we have no fiduciary obligation to franchisees with respect to the Marketing Fund. Marketing Fees not used in one year will be carried over to the next year. We and our Affiliates will only receive payment from the marketing funds for amounts we incur in providing goods and services at arms-length prices. We have no obligation to undertake any specific advertising campaigns or to conduct advertising in any particular area, or to spend a prorated amount in your market. We may use the funds in our sole discretion to (1) formulate, develop and implement marketing, advertising, public relations, and promotional campaigns; (2) support the development and maintenance of the Marketing Resource Center, which includes a separate and customized marketing portal for each Franchisee; and (3) pay us for the expense of administering the Marketing Fund, including accounting expenses and salaries and benefits paid to our employees engaged in the marketing functions. No portion of the Marketing Fund will be spent for advertising principally designed at solicitation of the sale of franchises, however we may include a notation in any advertisement indicating "Franchises are Available". There is no requirement that the Marketing Fund be audited. If requested in writing, we will provide you an annual unaudited statement of the financial condition of the Marketing Fund.

In fiscal year 2025, the Marketing Funds fees collected were used as follows: (i) 20% for managing the development and construction of the Training Center Websites; (ii) 15% for Athlete Assessment campaigns; (iii) 26% for Quarterly / Seasonal Marketing Campaigns, including: 'Next Season Starts Now' spring, 'Unlevel the Playing Field' summer marketing, 'All Season Strong' fall / BTS marketing, 'Cheetah Club', NIL and ACL Bridge Webinars, NPS Survey, Black Friday and Holiday Marketing (iv) 12% for Paid Digital services, such as: Meta, Instagram, TikTok, LinkedIn and Google Ads; (v) 12% for improvement of CRM marketing workflows and automations (vi) 7% for Marketing Portal, Creative, Branding, and Design Services; (vii) 5% for In-season Training campaigns; and (viii) 3% for Public Relations services and support. At our discretion, we seek the Franchise Advisory Council's insights for the allocation of the Franchise Marketing Fund.

In addition to the Marketing Fee, Training Centers must spend a minimum of $1,000 per month in local marketing until they have 150 active members under contract. Online advertising, local outreach efforts, sponsorships, NIL, and other local marketing activities are all acceptable use of the local marketing funds. Once the Training Center has achieved 150 active members, it must spend an amount equal to the required Marketing Fee payments for such year on local marketing and promotion. At this time, we do not have a local or regional advertising cooperative, nor do we have plans to form one in the future. You will not be required to participate or direct any amount you are required to spend on local advertising to an advertising cooperative. There is no minimum marketing required for Satellite Training Centers.

From time to time, we may provide you with advertising materials or offer them to you at an additional cost. You may develop advertising materials for your own use and adjust your website at your own cost. We must approve the advertising materials and website changes in advance and in writing. You must comply with our published Brand Standards and all our and our vendors' and other business associates' trademark, trade name, service mark and copyright notices marking requirements and you will supply to us samples or photographs of the same upon our request. You are ultimately responsible for ensuring that your advertising complies with all applicable laws before using them (Franchise Agreement – Section 6).

We provide an iPad for managing the AR Vision software as part of each Treadmill Feedback Package. The video software we currently require you to purchase as an operating subscription which is included in the monthly BOS fee. We reserve the right to change suppliers at our discretion. We also require you to purchase from us a tablet computer to manage 3PQ testing. We require that you purchase at least one (1) computer system and printer for front desk activities, which includes scheduling athlete training sessions and entering of athlete data plus pre and post training test results into the ART system, the Sales and Marketing suite of subscriptions for the Key Performance Indicator (“KPI”) dashboard, website management, the CRM system for lead management, social media activities, and e-mail communications. Any updates, supplements or modifications are not subject to or part of the Maximum Modernization Amount. The Computer System may include all hardware and software used in the operation of the Franchised Business, including office programs used to record, analyze and report sales, labor, inventory and tax information.

The computer software package for use in the Franchised Business includes proprietary software. You are required to license the proprietary software from us, an affiliate or a third party and you are required to pay the BOS Fee for your use of the proprietary software and subscriptions that we license through 3rd party software providers. All rights, title and interest in the software will remain with the licensor of the software. We retain the right to restrict or terminate your use of the 3rd party software we provide, should you violate or misuse the software companies’ intellectual property trademarks or tradenames, attempt to reverse engineer the software, consume excessive bandwidth, or violate any laws that apply to software duplication, consumer privacy or related matters. The computer hardware and component of the Computer System must be purchased from us. We will have full and complete independent access to information and data entered and produced by the Computer System (Franchise Agreement, Sections 8.D and 8.H).

The equipment required for the Treadmill Feedback System must be purchased from us and includes an iPad [Pro generation 4 or newer] with mounting bracket, video analysis software, a 55” flat screen monitor for each and wireless connections and HDMI cables that connect the iPad to the TV for each AR Vision System. The cost of each Treadmill Feedback Package is $2,600, plus the monthly software subscription that is part of the BOS package. The flat panel display will be not less than a 55” display. One AR Vision system is provided with the required equipment packages for Training Program offerings. Additional AR Vision systems are available for purchase for an additional fee.

The tablet that manages and records data from the 3PQ force plate mounted on one of the PlyoPress Machines is a Samsung Galaxy S1. The 3PQ Computer must have an active ethernet outlet nearby and be connected to the internet to store, record, and manage athlete 3PQ data.

The hand-held Computer Tablet is used by trainers to access, deliver and record the training protocols stored in the ART system, while leading training sessions.

You are responsible for purchasing the Front Desk Computer with an active internet connection to manage center business, athlete scheduling, website content and credit or debit card processing transactions.

After the earlier of the Training Center opening or 6 months you will pay us the monthly BOS Fee which includes hosting your website, maintaining the site and providing access to analytic reports for your review and interpretation. Any customer support or phone support and other website services from our website contractor (i.e., Search Engine Optimization) are contracted independently by you with the third-party provider. You agree to accept the change in BOS Fee monthly pricing as long as we provide 60 days' notice of any change in cost or service level. (Franchise Agreement – Section 8.H and Appendix F).

Additional support and reference materials are included in the Athletic Republic® Academy curriculum to expand intern knowledge and understanding.

(2) The Level 1 and Level 2 online training provides a series of courses that each include: online study and reference materials; online lectures that may be download; videos; and homework assignments. Supervision by the Director of Sports Performance Training is encouraged. These courses are available once the initial Franchise Fee payment is received. The Online Classroom Instruction is intended to provide you and your training team with a thorough understanding of the training system, training equipment, training protocols, athlete assessment tools, business development, business operating systems and additional components that deal with the operation of your franchise on a daily basis.

(3) With the exception of the Interactive Website Training that you may take on any computer with website access and the On-site Training, which will be conducted at your Franchised Location, the advanced Level 3 training is provided virtually or at our facilities in Park City, Utah or at a nearby hotel or other nearby location if additional space is necessary, or at another acceptable location we designate or offer portions of the training online through virtual meetings. We reserve the right to hold the training in a different city located within the continental United States provided we give sufficient notice to the attendees.

We provide access to the Levels 1 and 2 training every time a new franchisee signs a Franchise Agreement. We schedule a live or virtual Level 3 training and the ACL Bridge Program two times per year. We can schedule the optional In-Center Training in the Park City or another Training Center at your request, provided you give us sufficient advanced written notice. We schedule the on-site / pre-opening training after the Fitness Equipment has been installed, as part of the Training Center's 'soft-opening' process.

During each of the initial training sessions you will receive, at no charge to you, different manuals and other written materials. In addition, you will be provided with access to our online training materials. Kyle Ballew, our Vice President of Sports Performance Training, oversees our training and education curriculum, and Charlie Graves, our CEO, as well as members of the Athletic Republic executive team, contribute to the business-related topics. Mr. Ballew has a Masters Degree in Sports Physiology from the University of South Dakota State and eight years of practical experience working with Athletic Republic and other sports performance training facilities. Other Athletic Republic executives, partners, and network members who have experience in some facet of the operation of our business (for example, business and training technology and operating systems, sports performance training, sales and marketing, business operations, customer service, and franchise economics) will assist in the teaching and training segments of the training.

You must have the Director of Sports Performance Training or Head Trainer attend and successfully complete our Level 1 and Level 2 Education and Certification courses before the date you open your Franchised Business. PUBLIC FIGURES

While Athletic Republic has trained many great collegiate, Olympic and Professional athletes, it does not compensate any public figure to promote its Brand or franchise system.

ITEM 19.
FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC’s Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

This Item 19 includes a historic representation of the past performance of Athletic Republic training centers. As of December 31, 2025, we had 41 open U.S. franchised Training Centers, plus 13 license locations and 5 international locations.

Table 1 below contains the Training Center’s real estate format, Athlete Density, Total Revenue, Gross Sales from Athletic Republic Services, and the square footage of the Athletic Republic training space from 24 of the 41 open U.S. Franchise Training Centers (the “Training Center Study Group”) that were each open at the start of the 2025 calendar year under the same ownership and have granted us access to their Mindbody and/or AR Baseline software for online scheduling and point-of-sale transactions.

Excluded from this Item 19 are 17 open Training Centers, of which: eight began operations during 2025; eight operated only during after-school hours or less than 35 hours per week; and one is a non-revenue businesses dedicated to training national, elite or university teams and athletes..

Table 2 presents the high, low, average, and median financial performance of the Training Center Study Group for comparison.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to you upon reasonable written request.

TABLE 1 NOTES:

(1) The Training Center Study Group includes twenty-four (24) Athletic Republic® Training Centers with 2025 performance data on each Training Center.

(2) The flexibility of the Athletic Republic model allows Training Centers to be located in a strip retail center, flex or light industrial space, or Co-Located within a SportsPlex, Ice Rink, Community Recreation Center, Baseball Training Facility, Health Club, Wellness Center, Office Building, Physical Therapy Clinic or Sports Medicine Center.

(3) Athlete Density is the number of athletes Athletic Republic considers potential customers attending Middle School or High School in a 10-mile or 25-minute radius of the Training Center. This geographic area has historically provided 70-75% of the student-athlete customers to the Training Center.

The student enrollment data is collected for Middle Schools and High Schools located within a 10-mile radius of the Training Center. The total enrollment is then multiplied by 30%, which represents half of the student athletes participating in organized sports.

Adults likely to participate in Athletic Republic fitness programs are not included in the calculations.

(4) Total Revenue is the amount of revenue from all sources, including Athletic Republic® Gross Sales, and other sources of revenue that are not considered Athletic Republic Products or Services, that the franchise owner/operator generated through the business in 2025.

(5) AR Gross Sales is defined as the total revenues and receipts collected by the Training Center from the sale of any of the Products or any Services and merchandise related to the Products or in any way utilizing any part of our proprietary Manuals or protocols or use of the Athletic Republic® brand either inside or outside the Training Center. Training Centers pay Royalties on AR Gross Sales, not on Total Revenue.

(6) AR Gross Sales generated per Potential Athlete is calculated by dividing the Training Center’s 2025 AR Gross Sales (Column 5) by the Athlete Density (Column 3) to establish a baseline measure for a Training Center’s performance against its market opportunity.

(7) The amount of Square Footage allocated to Athletic Republic training includes any pro-rated share of reception, office, storage, and bathrooms.

(8) The annual Gross Sales per square foot is determined by dividing the 2025 AR Gross Sales (Column 5) by the AR Square Footage allocation (Column 7).

TABLE 2 NOTES:

The data presented in Table 2 considers the information in each column independent of another column and provides aggregated insights of Average and Median performance for the full year of 2025. The Median represents the middle number of which half of the included Training Centers exceeded the number and which half did not. * The Quartile ranking for all attributes is based on the Training Centers Athletic Republic Gross Sales ranking (Column 5).

The averages presented above are calculated by adding the Total Revenue/AR Gross Sales of the 24 Training Centers and dividing by 24. Of the 24 Training Centers, 6 (or 25%) exceeded the Total Revenue Average and 8 (or 33%) exceeded the AR Gross Sales Average.

Some outlets have sold this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance you’ll earn as much.

The financial performance representations do not reflect the costs of sales, operating expenses, or other costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your Franchised Business. Franchisees or former franchisees may be one source of this information.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, we do not make any representations about a franchisee’s future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised outlets. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The following information applies to franchises and franchisees subject to California statutes and regulations. The Item number corresponds to those in the main body. The registration of this offering does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

1. California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to you concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal.
2. The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under Federal Bankruptcy Law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.).
3. The Franchise Agreement contains covenants not to compete which extend beyond the termination of the agreement. These provisions may not be enforceable under California law.
4. Section 31125 of the California Corporation Code requires the franchisor to provide you with a disclosure document before asking you to agree to a material modification of an existing franchise.
5. Neither the franchisor, any person or franchise broker in Item 2 of the Disclosure Document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 79a et seq., suspending of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the law, the law will control or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.
6. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur in Utah.
7. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
8. The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of Utah. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.
9. The Department has determined that we, the franchisor, have not demonstrated we are adequately capitalized and/or that we must rely on franchise fees to fund our operations. The Commissioner has imposed a fee deferral condition, which requires that we defer the collection of the Initial Franchise Fee from California franchisees until we have completed all of our pre-opening obligations and you are open for business. For California franchisees who sign a development agreement, the payment of the Development and Initial Franchise Fee attributable to a specific unit in your development schedule is deferred until that unit is open.
10. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
11. You must sign a general release if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporation Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).

12. THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT AT LEAST 14 DAYS PRIOR TO EXECUTION OF AGREEMENT.

13. OUR WEBSITE www.athleticrepublic.com HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION, ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION OR AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.

14. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable: (a) representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee; (b) reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents; (c) reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto; or (d) violations of any provision of this division.

15. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed, sealed and delivered this Addendum dated this _____ day of _____, 20__.

STATE OF ILLINOIS

The following information applies to franchise and franchisees subject to the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act of 1987. Item numbers correspond to those in the main body:

1. Items 5 and 7

Payment of Initial Franchise and Development Fees will be deferred until Franchisor has met its initial obligations to franchisee, and franchisee has commenced doing business. This financial assurance requirement was imposed by the Office of the Illinois Attorney General due to Franchisor's financial condition.

2. Item 17

Illinois law governs the Franchise Agreement.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal of an agreement are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

Illinois law, 815 ILCS 705/41, provides that any condition, stipulation, or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of the State of Illinois is void. Therefore, any condition, stipulation, or provision in the Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement purporting to bind Illinois franchisees to waive compliance with any provision of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of the State of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on behalf of the Franchisor, franchise seller or other person acting on behalf of a Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other document executed in connection with the franchise.

ADDENDUM TO ATHLETIC REPUBLIC®
FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT FOR THE STATE OF MARYLAND

The following information applies to franchises and franchisees subject to Maryland statutes and regulations. The Item number corresponds to those in the main body.

Item 5 - Initial Fees

Based upon the franchisor's financial condition, the Maryland Securities Commissioner has required a financial assurance. Therefore, the Initial Franchise and, if applicable, Development Fees owed by franchisees shall be deferred until the franchisor completes its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement. In addition, all development fees and initial payments by area developers shall be deferred until the first franchise under the development agreement opens.

Item 17 - General Release; Termination

Item 17 of the disclosure document is revised to include the following:

General Release. The general release required as a condition of renewal and/or assignment, as well as any other provision of the Franchise Agreement which may be construed to contain or require a general release, will not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

Termination by Athletic Republic, Inc. The Franchise Agreement provides for termination if you are insolvent under any applicable state or federal law. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C. Section 101 et seq.).

Statute of Limitations. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

Any representations that require the waiver of the occurrence and/or acknowledgment of the non-occurrence of acts that would constitute a violation of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law are not intended to, nor shall they act as, a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

NOTICE MANDATED BY SECTION 8 OF MICHIGAN'S FRANCHISE INVESTMENT ACT

The state of Michigan prohibits certain unfair provisions that are sometimes in franchise documents. If any of the following provisions are in these franchise documents, the provisions are void and cannot be enforced against you.

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.
 - (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.
 - (iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

The fact that there is a notice of this offering on file with the attorney general does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the attorney general.

Franchisees have the right to request that franchisor arranges for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow. The escrow agent shall be a financial institution authorized to do business in the State of Michigan. The escrow agent may release to the franchisor those amounts of the escrowed funds applicable to a specific franchisee upon presentation of an affidavit executed by the franchisee and an affidavit executed by the franchisor stating that the franchisor has fulfilled its obligation to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items. The escrow agent may also perform partial releases of escrowed funds upon receipt of affidavits of partial fulfillment of the franchisor's obligation.

No disclaimer, questionnaire, clause, or statement signed by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall be construed or interpreted as waiving any claim of fraud in the inducement, whether common law or statutory, or as disclaiming reliance on or the right to rely upon any statement made or information provided by any franchisor, broker or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor that was a material inducement to a franchisee's investment. Any statements or representations signed by a franchisee purporting to understand any fact or its legal effect shall be deemed made only based upon the franchisee's understanding of the law and facts as of the time of the franchisee's investment decision. This provision supersedes any other or inconsistent term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Item 17

Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 and Minn. Rule Part 2860.4400J, prohibit us from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota. In addition, nothing in the disclosure document or Franchise Agreement can abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

The disclosure document is amended to state that we will comply with Minn. Stat. 80C.14 subdivisions 3, 4, and 5, which require, except in certain specific cases, that you be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the Franchise Agreement.

Any statements or representations signed by a franchisee purporting to understand any fact or its legal effect shall be deemed made only based upon the franchisee's understanding of the law and facts as of the time of the franchisee's investment decision. This provision supersedes any other or inconsistent term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Therefore, the Initial Franchise and, if applicable, Development Fees owed by franchisees shall be deferred until the franchisor completes its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement.

No disclaimer, questionnaire, clause, or statement signed by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall be construed or interpreted as waiving any claim of fraud in the inducement, whether common law or statutory, or as disclaiming reliance on or the right to rely upon any statement made or information provided by any franchisor, broker or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor that was a material inducement to a franchisee's investment. Any statements or representations signed by a franchisee purporting to understand any fact or its legal effect shall be deemed made only based upon the franchisee's understanding of the law and facts as of the time of the franchisee's investment decision. This provision supersedes any other or inconsistent term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ADDENDUM TO ATHLETIC REPUBLIC®
DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT FOR THE STATE OF VIRGINIA

The following information applies to franchises and franchisees subject to Virginia statute § 13.1-564. The Item number corresponds to those in the main body.

Item 5. Item 5 of the disclosure document is amended to state that “the Virginia State Corporation Commission’s Division of Securities and Retail Franchising requires us to defer payment of the Initial Franchise Fee owed by franchisees to the franchisor until the date the franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the Franchise Agreement.”

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Athletic Republic, Inc. for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

Additional Disclosure. The following statements are added to Item 17.h.

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement or development agreement does not constitute "reasonable cause," as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

No disclaimer, questionnaire, clause, or statement signed by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall be construed or interpreted as waiving any claim of fraud in the inducement, whether common law or statutory, or as disclaiming reliance on or the right to rely upon any statement made or information provided by any franchisor, broker or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor that was a material inducement to a franchisee’s investment. Any statements or representations signed by a franchisee purporting to understand any fact or its legal effect shall be deemed made only based upon the franchisee’s understanding of the law and facts as of the time of the franchisee’s investment decision. This provision supersedes any other or inconsistent term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ATHLETIC REPUBLIC
WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE
AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.
8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).
10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.
15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor.
As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).
18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

You accept the license and undertake the obligation to operate the Franchised Business using the System and in compliance with our Brand Standards and operating standards. As part of our on-boarding program called the “Business Acceleration Program,” or “BAP” we will assist you with site selection and approval.

B. On-Boarding Fee; Equipment Order. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by us, you shall pay an on-boarding fee of $38,000 at the time you sign your Franchise Agreement (the "On-Boarding Fee"). You shall also place your initial equipment order (the "Equipment Order") for the Franchised Location within 250 days after the signing of this Agreement and make payment to us equal to 50% of the Equipment Order's total value, plus the value of the Promotional and Marketing Materials, Interior Graphics and Grand Opening marketing. C. Opening. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by us, you shall begin operating the Franchised Location within 365 days after the signing of this Agreement, unless you are executing this Agreement pursuant to an Area Development Agreement, in which case your Franchised Location shall be open and continuously operating by the date set forth under the Area Development Agreement. If you fail to have the Franchised Location open and in operation according to the provisions of this Section 2.C, we will have the right to terminate this Agreement without opportunity to cure pursuant to Section 13.B, or to begin charging you Royalty, Marketing and BOS Fees which you are obligated to pay per the Agreement.

D. Protected Territory; Option. Your Protected Territory is the area described in Appendix C. Should you choose to add a Satellite Training Center it will be listed in Appendix C. We and our affiliates will not locate and operate or grant to anyone else a franchise, license, or other rights to locate and operate a training center within the Protected Territory while this Agreement is in effect, except as provided in Sections 2.E and 2.F. If this Agreement is being executed in connection with an Area Development Agreement between you and us, in the event the Area Development Agreement is terminated, your Protected Territory may be modified or reduced.

You may not sell or otherwise transfer any piece of equipment or accessory that has been provided or required by us or that is otherwise used or of the type used in the operation of the Franchised Business and that is proprietary to us, including the items listed above, except for the Warm-up Cords, PowerCords, Balance Discs and Ramps, Sensory Training equipment, Nutritional Supplements, Home Training products and branded apparel which you may offer for sale.

You have no right under this Agreement to sublicense or subfranchise others to (i) develop or operate the Franchised Business, (ii) use the Athletic Republic® brand, the Trademarks, the Patents Rights or the System, or (iii) enter into any agreement regarding the Franchised Business, the Trademarks, the Patents Rights or the System. We and our affiliates have the right outside of the Protected Territory to operate or grant others the right to develop and operate training centers and offer, sell, or distribute any products, services or ART software associated with the System (now or in the future) under the Trademarks or any other trademarks, service marks or trade names or through any distribution channel or method, all without compensation to you. Furthermore, we and our affiliates have the right to operate and grant others the right to operate training centers or any other business within and outside the Protected Territory under trademarks other than the Trademarks.

In addition, you acknowledge that certain locations within the Protected Territory are by their nature unique and separate in character from sites generally developed as training centers. As a result, you agree that the following locations (“Special Sites”) are excluded from the Protected Territory and we have the right to develop, franchise, or otherwise do business at these locations in the Protected Territory: (i) professional sports teams; (ii) college athletic programs; (iii) military installations; (iv) Olympic training centers; (v) National Team training centers; and (vi) sports research centers, provided, however, that any business conducted at any Special Site shall be directly with the professional sports team (or an affiliate of them), with the college, with the governing group of any Olympic or National Governing Body training center, the U.S. military, or for research purposes, as the case may be. We will limit these professional sports team, college, military, research, or Olympic training centers to providing the ART software and Products at its principal place of business, training facilities or on campus. The ART software and Products will be available only to employees of the professional sports team, athletes under contract with the professional sports team or prospective players, employees, study subjects, students attending the college or the military, and the athletes and trainers at any Olympic or National Team training center.

F. Additional Reservation of Rights. We reserve all rights not expressly granted to you under this Agreement. The rights and privileges granted to you under this Agreement are personal in nature and may not be used at any location other than the Franchised Location, except as specifically set forth in this Agreement. You do not have the right to delegate, sub-franchise, or sublicense any of your rights under this Agreement.

3. TERM; RENEWAL RIGHTS. The initial term of this Agreement is for 11 years commencing on the date we sign this Agreement. (“Term”), and while the Term would not change, the Agreement may be terminated earlier as provided in this Agreement. You have the right to renew the franchise for (2) two additional 5-year terms, provided you meet all of the following conditions: (i) you have given us written notice at least 180 days, but no more than 365 days before the end of the initial term or renewal term of this Agreement of your desire to renew; (ii) you are in full compliance with this Agreement and all other agreements between you and us and between you and our affiliates, including the reporting and payment of Royalties, Marketing Fees and any payments due for outstanding invoices, and there has been no uncured default or series of four (4) or more defaults, regardless of cure, by you during the Term, and all your debts and obligations to us are current; (iii) you make or provide for in a manner satisfactory to us such renovation and re-equipping as we deem appropriate to reflect the then-current standards and image of the System, including renovation or replacement of signs, equipment, furnishings, fixtures and décor; (iv) you pay us a renewal fee at the time we execute the documents to complete your renewal in an amount equal to our actual expenses incurred by us in granting you the renewal and completing the renewal process, but not to exceed 20% of the total Initial Franchise Fee you are paying under Section 4.A of this Agreement; (v) you present evidence satisfactory to us that you have the right to remain in possession of the Franchised Location for the duration of the renewal term; (vi) you comply with our then-current training and staff certification requirements; (vii) you and your owners and guarantors execute and deliver to us a general release of claims in a form similar to that attached as Appendix D; and (viii) you sign our then-current form of franchise agreement (modified to reflect that the agreement relates to the grant of a renewal), the terms of which may be materially different from this Agreement, including higher Royalty, Marketing, BOS or other fees and modifications to the Training Center's format and Protected Territory.

4. FRANCHISE FEES; FINANCIAL INFORMATION; AUDITS.

A. Initial Franchise Fee. On the date of the signing of this Agreement you shall pay us a nonrefundable initial franchise fee in the following amounts (the "Initial Franchise Fee"):

- (i) If you will operate a Training Center, you will pay an Initial Franchise Fee of $55,000.
- (ii) If you operate a Training Center and will also operate one or more Satellite Training Centers you will pay an additional Satellite Franchise Fee of $5,000 per Satellite Training Center.

The Initial Franchise Fee has been fully earned upon receipt and is nonrefundable in consideration of the expenses incurred by us in granting this franchise and the lost or deferred opportunity to franchise to others.

If you operate a Satellite Training Center, you may request that we grant you the right to convert it to a Training Center and receive a Protected Territory that does not conflict with any other Training Center's Protected Territory, subject to the terms and conditions in the then-current Franchise Agreement that you would be required to sign. If you make the request to convert a Satellite Training Center to a Training Center you will pay us an additional Initial Franchise Fee equal to the difference between the Initial Franchise Fee as detailed in the then current Franchise Agreement, less the Satellite Franchise Fee that has been previously paid.

B. Onboarding-Fee. On the date of the signing of this Agreement you shall pay us a nonrefundable On-Boarding Fee of $38,000 for access to the Business Acceleration Program ("BAP"); which includes: Project management support including weekly calls with us during the pre-opening process and the first two months after you open for business (up to 30 calls); then bi-weekly calls (as needed) with us for the third, fourth, fifth, and six months after you open for business; subscription to the Basecamp Project Management software during the pre-opening period; access to our monthly webinars and open office hours during the pre-opening period; use of the Athletic Republic LockerRoom (our System intranet) during the pre-opening process; site selection assistance from our selected real estate firm; 2D training center test fits with equipment and turf lay-outs for up to three proposed sites for your Franchised Business location (if you propose more than three sites, you must pay us $500 per additional test fit location); Low Voltage 2D floor plan; access to AR Academy for owner, manager and trainer education; equipment selection support and access to distributor

C. Royalty. You will, for the term of this Agreement, pay to us a royalty fee (the "Royalty"), as follows:

- (i) If you operate a Training Center, you must pay a Royalty amount equal to 7% of monthly Gross Sales against a minimum Royalty amount of $350 paid to us every week.
- (ii) For every Satellite Training Center you operate, you will pay a fixed Royalty of $200 every week the center is open.

You must start paying Royalties beginning on the earlier of the day you open the Training Center for business or the 365th day after the execution of this Agreement. At the end of each month, you will calculate the "Royalty Balance" by multiplying the Training Center's total Gross Sales earned during the month by 7% to determine the "Royalty Amount", then deduct the weekly Minimum Royalties paid during the month from the Royalty Amount to determine the remaining Royalties Balance. The Training Center must submit to us monthly Financial Reports, that document the Training Center's revenue, including monthly and total year-to-date Gross Sales, and expenses, as well as the Royalty Balance calculation for the preceding month. Payment of the remaining Royalty Balance is due to us on or before the 15th day of the month following the end of the preceding month. We retain the right to modify the Royalty reporting process and payment schedule at our sole discretion at any point in time.

D. Marketing Fee. You will pay us a fixed marketing fee of $100 every week (the "Marketing Fee"). We reserve the right to increase the amount of the Marketing Fee annually upon a 30-day written notice to you, provided, however, that we may not increase the Marketing Fee more than one time every three years, and we may not increase the Marketing Fee to exceed $8,000 in any year. Among other programs, the Marketing Fee is used to support each Franchise's access to the Marketing Resource Center. The Marketing Fees will not be held by us in trust and will become our property to be spent in accordance with Section 6.A of this Agreement. You must start paying the Marketing Fee beginning on the earlier of the day you open the Training Center for business or the 365th day after the execution of this Agreement.

E. Business Operating Systems. The $600 monthly fee for BOS services (the "BOS Fee") may increase (or decrease) as costs and services change over time. You agree to accept the change in monthly pricing as long as we provide 60-days' notice, and the monthly pricing corresponds to the change in cost or service level. Additional back-office subscriptions for payroll processing, Quickbooks accounting software, and online accounting are not included in the BOS suite of services but may be available for additional fees.

F. Payments. You must pay the minimum Royalty and the Marketing Fee every Tuesday for the preceding week. You must sign an electronic transfer of funds authorization, attached as Appendix I, to authorize and direct your bank or financial institution to transfer electronically to our account and to charge to your account all amounts due to us. Each Tuesday, we will send a request to your bank or financial institution to pay us the full amount of the minimum Royalties, Monthly Royalty Balance, Marketing Fees and other amounts owed to us for the preceding week. On the 5th of each month, we will send a request to your bank or financial institution to pay us the BOS fee owed for that month. You must maintain a balance in your account sufficient to allow us to collect the amounts owed when due. You are responsible for any penalties, fines or other expenses associated with the transfer of funds described in this Section 4.F. You shall not revoke the electronic transfer of funds authorization without giving us prior written notice and without first setting up a different electronic transfer of funds authorization under the same terms and conditions of the one being revoked. Based on your Gross Sales, as documented in the monthly financial reports, you must pay the remaining Royalty Balance due to us on or before, the 15th day of the following month. We retain the right to modify the Royalty reporting process and payment schedule against your Gross Sales at our discretion, at any point in time.

G. Unpaid Amounts. Any unpaid amounts owed to us after 30 days, including Royalties, Marketing Fees, BOS fees, product purchases, and freight charges will bear interest at the rate of 18% per year, calculated monthly or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law, whichever is lower. We retain the right to modify the Royalty reporting process and payment schedule against your Gross Sales at our discretion, at any point in time.

If you operate on a fiscal year, you are still required to provide us with the required financial information on a calendar monthly basis. We may require that the annual financial statements be reviewed by a certified public accountant. You shall also furnish us with copies of all your income tax returns and sales tax returns within 90 days from the end of each fiscal year. All financial information provided to us under this Section 4.H must be presented in the form required from time to time by us in writing. You must certify all reports to be true and correct in all material aspects.

I. Audit Rights. We and our authorized representatives have the right at all times during the business day to enter the premises where your books and records relative to the Training Center are kept and to evaluate, copy and audit such books and records. If any evaluation or audit reveals any understatement of your Gross Sales or Royalties or a variance of 5% or more from data reported to us in respect to any other item that is material to the computation of fees or to the analysis of the operation, you must pay for the audit or evaluation, any other related costs that we may incur (including reasonable auditors' and attorneys' fees) and, in addition to any other rights we may have, we have the right to conduct further periodic audits and evaluations of your books and records as we reasonably deem necessary for up to 3 years after the evaluation or audit and any further audits and evaluations will be at your sole expense, including professional fees, travel, and room and board expenses directly related to the audits or evaluations. Furthermore, regardless of the amount of variance discovered in any evaluation or audit, you shall pay to us, in addition to all amounts stated above, the amount of all underreporting within the prior 3-year period (or from the date you joined our System if less than 3 years). Additionally, if you intentionally understate or underreport Gross Sales or Royalties at any time, or if a subsequent audit or evaluation conducted within the 3-year period after the date the first underreporting was discovered reveals any understatement of your Gross Sales or Royalties or a variance of 5% or more from data reported to us in respect to any other item that is material to the computation of fees or to the analysis of the operation, in addition to any other remedies provided for in this Agreement, at law or in equity, we have the right to terminate this Agreement immediately.

J. Use of Your Information. In addition to any other rights granted in this Agreement to us, we have the right to use any athlete data or financial and business performance information we receive or obtain from you to provide information to prospective franchisees, including the right to group your information with similar information from other Athletic Republic® businesses to produce shared results like athlete demographic and performance data, plus high-low ranges or average gross sales, expenses or profitability on a system-wide or regional basis, provided that whenever we exercise our right under this Section 4.J, we will not exercise such right in violation of third parties' rights under any applicable privacy laws.

All improvements, including all trademarks, copyrights and any other intellectual property rights developed by or for you relating to the Trademarks, the Training Programs and the System will become our sole property, and we have the exclusive right to register and protect all such improvements in our name. You agree that if requested by us, you will execute a recordable assignment and other documents prepared by us for securing and maintaining such intellectual property rights and vesting title in us. You have no right to register or protect any improvements in your name or in the name of any of your affiliates.

B. Trademark Use. Subject to the terms and conditions under this Agreement, we grant you, during the term of this Agreement, a non-exclusive right and license to use the Trademarks, but solely in connection with the marketing, advertising, and promotion of your business at the Franchised Location, provided that you use the Trademarks only in the manner required, directed and approved by us in writing. You may not use, or permit the use of, any trademarks, trade names or service marks except those listed on Appendix B or except as we otherwise direct in writing. Your right to use and identify with the Trademarks and the System exists concurrently with the term of this Agreement and only while you are in complete compliance with our quality standards. You will not have or acquire any rights in any of the Trademarks or the System other than the right of use as governed by this Agreement. If, in our judgment, your conduct infringes upon or demeans the goodwill, standards of uniformity or quality, or business standing associated with the Trademarks or the System, you will immediately, upon written notice from us, modify your use of the Trademarks and the System in the manner required by us in writing. You will not, during or after the term of this Agreement, do anything directly or indirectly which would infringe upon, harm, or contest our rights in the Trademarks or the System or the goodwill associated with the Trademarks or the System.

C. Trademark Identification. You will operate the Franchised Location so that it is clearly identified as a member of our network. You must use the name Athletic Republic® or any other trademark or trade name

You may not use the words in any of the Trademarks as part of the name of your legal entity. The style, form, and use of the words in our Trademarks in any written materials, products or supplies must have our prior written approval. You may use the name “Athletic Republic[®]” and any other Trademarks which now or in the future may form part of the System on all signs, interior branding, business cards, marketing materials and other articles in the identical combination and manner as we may make available or prescribe in writing. You will comply with all trademark, trade name, service mark and copyright notice marking requirements. You will not make any changes in or to the use of the Trademarks or the System unless directed by us in writing.

E. Trademark Litigation. If any person or entity improperly uses or infringes the Trademarks or challenges your use or our use or ownership of the Trademarks, we will control all litigation and we have the right to determine whether suit will be instituted, prosecuted, or settled, the terms of the settlement and whether any other action will be taken. You must promptly notify us of any such use or infringement of which you are aware or any challenge or claim arising out of your use of any Trademark. You must take reasonable steps, without compensation, to assist us with any action we undertake. We are not required to defend you against a claim based on your use of our trademarks, nor will we reimburse you for your liability.

F. Copyrighted Materials. You acknowledge and agree that we may authorize you to use certain copyrighted or copyrightable works (the “Copyrighted Materials”), including the Training Protocols, Operation Manual, On-Boarding Materials, Education Resources, and information shared through the LockerRoom, our intranet and our website. The Copyrighted Materials are our valuable property. Your rights to use the Copyrighted Materials are granted to you solely on the condition that you comply with the terms of this Agreement. Your use of the Copyrighted Materials does not vest you with any interest other than the temporary, non-exclusive license to use the Copyrighted Materials granted in this Agreement. All rights that inure as a result of the use of the Copyrighted Materials and any derivative work belong solely to us.

G. Protection. You shall execute any documents that we or our counsel deem necessary for the protection of the Copyrighted Materials or the Trademarks or to maintain their validity or enforceability, or to aid us in acquiring rights in or in registering any of the Trademarks or any trademarks, copyrights, trade names, service marks, trade dress, slogans, logos or emblems that we subsequently adopt.

The Marketing Fund is not a trust or escrow account, and we have no fiduciary obligation to franchisees regarding the Marketing Fund.

We have the sole right to determine the expenditures of the amounts collected and the methods of allocation to each franchise's use of the Marketing Resource Center, or the marketing, advertising, media employed and contents, terms and conditions of marketing campaigns and promotional programs. We are not required to spend a prorated amount on each franchisee or in each advertising market. We have the sole right to make disbursements from the Marketing Fund for expenses incurred in connection with the cost to formulate, develop, implement, and support marketing, advertising, social media, public relations, and promotional campaigns. The disbursements may include payments to us for the expense of administering the Marketing Fund, including accounting expenses and salaries and benefits paid to our employees engaged in the marketing functions. If at the end of our fiscal year we have not spent all the Marketing Fees collected, we will carry forward any balances. No portion of the Marketing Fund will be spent for advertising principally designed at solicitation of the sale of franchises, however we may include a notation in any advertisement indicating "Franchises are Available". There is no requirement that the Marketing Fund be audited. If requested, we will provide you an annual unaudited statement of the financial condition of the Marketing Fund.

B. Required Local Expenditures; Approved Materials. You must use your best efforts to promote and advertise the Franchised Business and participate in any local marketing and promotional programs we establish from time to time. In addition to the Marketing Fee you must spend $1,000 per month on local marketing, outreach, sponsorships, NIL, advertising, and/or related activities until you reach 150 active members. After you reach 150 active members, you must spend an amount equal or greater than your required Marketing Fee payments for such year on approved local marketing and promotion. As an additional part of our "Business Acceleration Program," we will help you with sales and marketing programs, provide you grand opening assistance and lead management support through a third-party provider for a total of three months, beginning with the pre-sale process and extending beyond the opening of your Training Center.

You agree that if requested by us, you will execute a recordable copyright assignment and other proper documents prepared by us for securing and maintaining any such rights of ownership, including copyrights, and for vesting title in us.

7. FACILITY STANDARDS. You acknowledge and agree that we have the right to establish, from time to time, quality standards regarding the business operations of Franchised Business to protect the distinction, goodwill and uniformity symbolized by the Trademarks and the System. Accordingly, you agree to maintain and comply with our quality standards and agree to the following terms and conditions:

A. Facilities. You are responsible for purchasing or leasing a site that meets our site selection criteria to establish the Franchised Location. You must obtain our written consent approving the selected site. Our examination and approval of the location of your site does not constitute a representation, guaranty or warranty, express or implied, of the successful operation or profitability of the Franchised Business. We reserve the right to mandate your use of a third-party real estate firm of our choice at any time to assist you with site selection and assistance with the material terms of the lease, provided the real estate firm is compensated with a commission paid by the landlord upon signing a lease. The real estate firm does not provide legal counsel for lease review. You will need to retain a real estate lawyer for lease review and any negotiation of the lease language.

B. Construction; Future Alteration. You must construct and equip the Franchised Business in strict accordance with our approved minimum specifications and standards pertaining to equipment, displays, fixtures, interior branding, paint colors, sports flooring, furnishings, signage, accessory features and design and layout as detailed in the “AR Facility Standards”, which we may change or update from time to time. If the Franchised Business is not constructed and equipped in accordance with our approved minimum specifications and standards, we will not approve the Franchised Business for opening. You will have 30 days from the date we deny our approval for opening the Franchised Business to correct all the problems so that the Franchised Business complies with our approved minimum specifications and standards. If you fail to correct the problems within the 30-day period we may immediately terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 13.B.

You may not open the Franchised Business until we have notified you in writing that you have satisfied your pre-opening obligations provided in Sections 7.A and 7.B and we have approved your opening date. We are not responsible or liable for any of your pre-opening obligations, losses or expenses you might incur for your failure to comply with these obligations or your failure to open by a particular date. We also are entitled to injunctive relief under Section 15.C for your failure to comply with your obligations.

C. Maintenance. You will paint the Training Center in our Brand’s approved color scheme and keep the interior and exterior of the Franchised Location in an attractive, clean and sanitary condition. All equipment, displays, fixtures, sports flooring, furnishings, signage, accessory features, design and layout and trade dress will be kept in good working order and will meet our quality standards. You agree to immediately perform all maintenance, remodeling and re-equipping of the Franchised Business as may be necessary or appropriate to remain in compliance with the System and our specific directions and instructions. Within a period of 45 days after the receipt of any particular report prepared following such an evaluation by us, you must affect the items of maintenance we designate, including the repair of defective items and/or the replacement of irreparable or obsolete items of equipment, displays, fixtures, furnishings, interior branding elements, signage, accessory features, design and layout and trade dress. If, however, any condition presents a threat to customers or public health or safety, you must affect the items of maintenance immediately.

D. Relocation. You may not relocate the Franchised Location without our prior written consent. Every time that we authorize you to relocate the Franchised Location to a new Franchised Location, you must comply with the obligations set forth in this Section 7. You must pay the Royalties, Marketing and BOS Fees set forth in Sections 4.C,4.D and 4.E during the time that the Franchised Location is closed due to its relocation. If you relocate the Franchised Location without our prior written consent or without fully complying with the requirements set forth in this Section 7, such relocation will be void, your interest in this Agreement will be voluntarily abandoned, and this Agreement will automatically terminate. Circumstances under which we may approve relocation include those cases in which the market conditions and the dynamics surrounding the original Franchised Location have changed significantly. You have no right to relocate if you lose the right to occupy the Franchised Location premises due to your breach of your lease. If you want to relocate the Franchised Location you must (i) give us notice of your intent to relocate at least 90 days before the date you anticipate closing the Franchised Location; (ii) procure and secure a site within the Protected Territory (or if you operate a Training Clinic in close proximity of your Franchise Location and not within the protected Territory of another Franchise Location) and that is acceptable to us at least 60 days before closing the Franchised Location; (iii) open the newly approved Franchised Location within 60 days of such closure; (iv) be current with all reporting and payment due for Royalty, Marketing Fees, BOS Fees and any other payments owed to us; and (v) comply with any other conditions that we reasonably require. You must pay the costs of any relocation, and we reserve the right to charge you for any reasonable costs that we incur, including legal fees and equipment extraction and/or installation costs.

E. Modernization or Replacement. From time to time as we may require, you must affect items of modernization of the building, premises, trade dress, equipment, signage, fixtures, and accessory features as may be necessary for the Franchised Business to conform to the standards for similarly situated new Franchised Business. The maximum cumulative amount (the "Maximum Modernization Amount") that you must spend during the initial term of this Agreement will be $50,000. We may require you to spend all the Maximum Modernization Amount at any time during the initial term of this Agreement, provided, however, that we will not require you to spend more than 20% of the Maximum Modernization Amount in any 12-month period during the first 5 years of this Agreement. The Maximum Modernization Amount does not include any required expenditures for equipment or leasehold improvements necessary to offer new Products. Also, you must perform general, continued maintenance and refreshing of the Franchised Business whenever necessary as provided in Section 7.C and at a cost not included in the Maximum Modernization Amount.

The obligation to perform any items of modernization and/or replacement in connection with any renewal under Section 3 or any transfer of any interest in this Agreement or your business governed by Section 12 is separate and independent from the modernization obligations under this Section 7.E. Renewals and Transfers are conditioned upon performance of any further items of modernization and/or replacement required under Sections 3 or 12, as applicable, regardless of the costs of such modernization and/or replacement.

F. Signage. You must prominently display on the premises of the Franchised Location, signs in such form, color, number, location, design and size as we may approve, and containing such Trademarks as we may designate, which at a minimum will include an exterior sign identifying the Training Center as an affiliate of Athletic Republic®, the exterior sign is at your expense, an interior Athletic Republic® branded sign behind or adjacent to the front desk, the cost which is included in the Interior Branding Fee (provided it does not exceed 116" x 17.5", without our consent). You must also post a prominent sign in the Franchised Location identifying you as our franchisee in a format we deem reasonably acceptable and including an acknowledgment that you independently own and operate the Franchised Business and that all the Trademarks are owned by us. These signs shall be obtained from us or a source designated or approved by us. You shall obtain all governmental permits and licenses required for these signs and shall also be responsible for ensuring that all signs comply with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and ordinances. You shall not display in or upon the Franchised Location any sign of any kind to which we object. You must make such changes to the signage as we require, provided, however, that we will not require you to change the outdoor signage, if any, more than once within any 24-month period. At such time as we decide to change our trademarks, logos, and trade names, we will require you, at your sole expense, to change your signage to be in compliance with the new trademarks, logos and trade names. In any case, your failure to replace the signage within 12 months from the date of notification will constitute a default of this Agreement under Section 13.B. Any upgrades to the type or size of your signage will be at your expense. Your costs for the signage will be included in the Maximum Modernization Amount under Section 7.E. You agree to the placement of a 'Franchises Available' sign, that we produce and provide, on your front door, as part of the Interior Branding package. Further, you will have the obligation to display, in the places and manner we may determine from time to time, any signs that we provide you advertising investment or franchising opportunities offered by us.

8. OPERATIONAL STANDARDS. You must implement and abide by our requirements and recommendations directed to enhancing substantial System uniformity, including our “Customer Service Standards” which we may update or modify from time to time. The following provisions control regarding products and operations:

A. Period of Operation. You acknowledge and agree that if the Franchised Business is closed for 10 consecutive business days or 15 or more business days in any 12-month period without our prior written consent, such closure constitutes your voluntary abandonment of the franchise and business and we have the right, in addition to other remedies available to us, to terminate this Agreement immediately pursuant to Section 13.B. For purposes of this Section 8.A, “business days” shall exclude Saturdays, Sundays, and any holidays in which major financial institutions that operate in the city where the Franchised Location is located are closed for business. An integral part of our “Business Acceleration Program” is to offer you assistance with business planning and to provide you with regular operating support.

B. Products. You may offer the Products, but you may offer only the Products for which (a) you have all the necessary equipment and accessories and (b) you and your personnel have received the necessary training. We may modify the lists of Training Programs in Appendix A at any time, and you must promptly take all actions necessary to comply with any such changes. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, you may not, without our prior written consent, offer or sell any other product or service that is similar to or competitive with the Products, provided, however, that you may continue offering all the products and services that you offered before the date of this Agreement. With our written consent, you may offer Complimentary Products and services to the Products.

C. Approved Supplies and Suppliers. You will conform to all quality and customer service standards required by us in writing. You will acquire only such types, models or brands of fixtures, furniture, equipment, inventory and supplies that we approve as meeting our standards, quality, design, warranties, appearance, function and performance. We may require you to acquire certain sports flooring, synthetic turf, furniture, equipment, inventory, supplies, services, or other products used or offered at the Franchised Business from us or from suppliers who have been approved by us, in which case we will provide you with a list of approved suppliers. This requirement may include the use of a Construction Manager or General Contractor that we have pre-approved or selected. Along with a number of other approval criteria, to be an approved supplier, the supplier must have the ability to provide the product and/or service, on a national basis, to at least 75% of the then existing Athletic Republic® franchisees. Furthermore, we may require you to acquire from us, or from a single source designated by us, products or services that involve trade secrets, have been specially prepared by us or at our direction, or that we consider integral to the System. Concurrently with this Agreement, you must execute an Equipment Purchase Agreement in a form substantially similar to that attached on Appendix E covering, at least, the minimum recommended equipment necessary for the operation of your Franchised Business; you may choose to acquire more than the minimum equipment through the Equipment Purchase Agreement. The minimum recommended equipment necessary will depend on the Products that you will offer. You must place the order for your Fitness Equipment with us within 250 days from the date of this Agreement and take delivery of the Fitness Equipment within 350 days from the date of signing of this Agreement.

You will place the initial equipment order with us and may not acquire equipment from third parties that have not been previously authorized by us in writing. You cannot use any part of the Manuals to operate equipment that has not being acquired from us or from a third party previously approved by us in writing.

If we do not have a designated or an approved supplier for an item or supply, you may acquire such item or supply from the vendor of your choice. All inventory, products, materials and other items and supplies used in the operation of the Franchised Business that are not included in the approved supplies or approved suppliers' lists must conform to the specifications and standards we establish from time to time. ALTHOUGH APPROVED BY US, WE AND OUR AFFILIATES MAKE NO WARRANTY AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ALL WARRANTIES, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, REGARDING PRODUCTS, EQUIPMENT, SUPPLIES, FIXTURES, FURNISHINGS OR OTHER APPROVED ITEMS. IN ADDITION, WE DISCLAIM ANY LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE SERVICES RENDERED OR PRODUCTS FURNISHED BY ANY SUPPLIER APPROVED OR DESIGNATED BY US. OUR APPROVAL OR CONSENT TO ANY SERVICES, GOODS, SUPPLIERS, OR ANY OTHER INDIVIDUAL, ENTITY OR ITEM WILL NOT CREATE ANY LIABILITY TO US.

D. Operating Procedures. You must adopt and use as your continuing operational routine the required standards, service style, procedures, Customer Service Standards, sales and marketing techniques, program packaging and management systems described in our Manuals or other written materials relating to the Products, financial management, equipment, marketing, best practices and Facility Standards. We will revise the Manuals and these standards, procedures, techniques, and management systems periodically to meet changing conditions in the best interest of the System. You acknowledge having received one copy of or access to the Manuals, which are on loan from us for the term of this Agreement. The Manuals at all times are our sole property. You must at all times treat the Manuals, and the information they contain, as secret and confidential, and must use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential. We may from time to time revise the contents of the Manuals and you expressly agree to comply with each new or changed requirement. You must at all times ensure that your copy of the Manuals is kept current and up to date, and in the event of any dispute as to the contents of said Manuals, the terms of the master copy of the Manuals that we maintain are controlling. The Manuals are provided in an electronic format accessible only with a password to our LockerRoom / intranet or distributed directly to you via electronic communications or provided as part of the Athletic Republic Academy education curriculum or Business Acceleration Program. Any required standards exist to protect our interests in the System, the Trademarks and the Patents Rights, and not for the purpose of establishing any control or duty to take control over those matters that are reserved to you. If you lose any of the Manuals we provide you, in addition to any liability you may have pursuant to any provisions in this Agreement, you shall be obligated to immediately notify us in writing what Manuals you have lost.

E. Computer System. As part of your Fitness Equipment order, we will provide a TV with wall mount, an iPad and software to run AR Vision, a hand-held with mount tablet to run the 3PQ forceplate software, and two (2) hand-held iPads to access the Training Protocols located in the Athletic Republic Technology ("ART") suite for training athletes, which includes Athlete Assessment capabilities. Any updates, supplements or modifications are not subject to or part of the Maximum Modernization Amount defined in Section 7.E. The Computer System may include all hardware and software used in the operation of the Franchised Business, including tools used to record, analyze and report information about the athletes training at the Franchised Business. The computer software package that may be developed for use in the Franchised Business may include proprietary software. You may be required to license the proprietary software from us, an affiliate or a third party and you also may be required to pay a software licensing or user fee in connection with your use of the proprietary software. All rights, title and interest in the software will remain with the licensor of the software. We retain the right to restrict or terminate your use of the 3rd party software we provide, should you violate or misuse ours or the software companies' intellectual property trademarks or tradenames, attempt to reverse engineer the software, consume excessive bandwidth, or violate any laws that apply to software duplication, consumer privacy or related matters. We reserve the right to provide or designate a single source from whom you must purchase the Computer System. You acknowledge and agree that we will have full and complete access to information and data entered and produced by the Computer System. With the “Business Acceleration Program” we will provide you assistance with issues that may arise with your use of software we provide to you and the set-up and configuration of the software used in the Business Operating Systems (“BOS”).

You will gather from your customers all lawful information required by us (subject to any approval or consents required by law), and you will enter this information into our central computer database, customer relationship management (CRM) database and/or into the online customer scheduling software as requested by us but at not less than once a week during the term of this Agreement. All of the information that you enter into our central computer database or into the online customer scheduling software will become our sole and exclusive property, and we may use it as we deem necessary or appropriate. We may make available to you information gathered in our central computer database, the CRM system or through the online customer scheduling software and you will have the right to use this information in the form we prescribe in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business. You shall be solely responsible for, and you agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from, any liability arising out of or related to your use of such information.

F. Evaluations. We and or our authorized representatives (including third parties hired by us) have the right to enter the Franchised Location at all reasonable times during the business day for the purpose of making periodic evaluations and to ascertain if the provisions of this Agreement and our Manuals are being observed by you. These inspections may include: (i) observing and/or interviewing the Manager and/or Head Trainer, and your other employees; (ii) retaining ‘secret shoppers’ for un-announced inspections; (iii) distribute customer satisfaction surveys, including a Net Promotor Score (NPS) survey, and/or interview your customers, and (iv) conducting any type of audit or review necessary to evaluate your compliance with all required standards, specifications or procedures. We may, from time to time, make suggestions and give mandatory instructions regarding your operation of the Franchised Business, as we consider necessary or appropriate to ensure compliance with the then-current quality standards of the System and to protect the goodwill and image of the System.

G. Confidential Information. You and your owners, guarantors, officers, directors, managers, employees or agents, or any other individual or entity related to, or controlled by you, may not, during the term of this Agreement or at any time after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, disclose, copy, reproduce, sell or use in any other business or in any manner not specifically authorized or approved in advance in writing by us any Confidential Information. We have the right to determine the content and use of our website, intranet system and BOS solutions and may establish the rules under which franchisees may or must participate. Additionally, in order to ensure uniformity regarding the use of our trademarks on the internet and/or intranet, we may require you to utilize in your website design certain templates that we have developed. You may not separately register any domain name or social media identifiers containing any of the Trademarks or any part of the Trademarks. We retain all rights relating to our website, intranet and BOS system and may alter or terminate our website, intranet or BOS system. If you default in making any of these payments, we are authorized, but not required, to pay the same on your behalf and you agree promptly to reimburse us on demand for any such payment. You understand that your failure to make timely payments to us may result in the suspension of services and the shut-down of BOS software access, email accounts, 3PQ, the Super Treadmill and Hockey Treadmill.

L. System Modifications. You acknowledge and agree that we have the right to modify, add to or rescind any requirement, standard or specification that we prescribe under this Agreement to adapt the System to changing conditions competitive circumstances, business strategies, business practices and technological innovations and other changes as we deem appropriate. Furthermore, anyone training athletes must complete our Level 1 training prior to administering any Products.

Other than a registration fee for first time Level 3 participants there are no other costs when we offer Level 3 virtually for Trainers.

Before opening the Training Center, we encourage every new Head Trainer to invest four to five days into learning the Athletic Republic® system by working in the Park City, Utah training center to shadow training sessions, experience business development activities, learn operations, software and scheduling systems, and conduct training sessions under the supervision of our staff in the Park City, Utah training center (the “Park City Training”). Training opportunities are scheduled by us in advance based on our availability and will be open to any Owner, Manager or Head Trainer, and will be granted on a first come, first served basis with a maximum of three (3) new people per training session. You will be responsible for all transportation, accommodation, food, and payroll expenses.

After the Fitness Equipment has been installed, one of our Level 3 instructors will come to the Training Center for up to 3 days during the first week of the Training Center’s ‘soft-open’ period, to work with your Manager, Head Trainer and Training Team to make sure they are comfortable, knowledgeable and capable of conducting a Training Trial, understand how to utilize the Fitness Equipment and Business Operating System and are reasonably able to deliver the Athletic Republic Training System (“On-site Instruction”). C. Ongoing Training. You, your Manager and Head Trainer are expected to participate in monthly network webinars held virtually the first and third Thursday of each month. You shall reimburse us all the costs we incur in providing any additional training. If you are given notice of default and the default relates, in whole or in part, to your failure to meet any operational standards, we have the right to require as a condition of curing the default that you, your Manager and/or Head Trainer, at your expense, comply with the additional training requirements we prescribe.

D. Staffing. In addition to the Manager and Head Trainer, you shall employ competent staff in such positions, in such numbers and pursuant to our criteria as we may require under the System or the Manuals from time to time. You shall also, at your own expense, conduct at the Franchised Location such training and instruction, using such materials, equipment and supplies, as may be necessary or appropriate to keep your standards in compliance with the System. F. Special Assistance. If you have some unusual or unique operating problems or if you have a specific situation in which you require assistance, you may request from us to provide you assistance to deal with the problem or situation you have, and we may, but have no obligation to, provide you this assistance. If we agree to provide you the assistance, we will charge you a $500 daily fee plus you must reimburse us for all the expenses we incur in providing you such assistance.

10. INDEMNIFICATION; INSURANCE.

A. Indemnification. We and you are independent contractors. Neither we nor you will make any agreements, representations or warranties in the name of or on behalf of the other or indicate that our relationship is other than that of franchisor and franchisee. Neither we nor you will be obligated by or have any liability under any agreements, representations or warranties made by the other, nor will we be obligated for any damages, losses, costs or expenses to any person or property directly or indirectly resulting from or arising out of the development or operation of your business, whether caused by your negligent or willful action or failure to act. You alone will be responsible for any claim, action, loss, damage, liability, injury or death arising out of, or relating to, the operation of your business or arising out of, or relating to, your acts or omissions or the acts or omissions of any of your agents, employees or contractors. You waive all claims against us arising out of the operation of the Franchised Business. You assume sole and complete responsibility for and will defend at your own cost and indemnify, reimburse and hold us harmless from and against all losses, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, investigation expenses, and court costs), obligations, damages and liabilities directly or indirectly resulting from or arising out of the development, maintenance or operation of your business, including the operation of the Franchised Business and claims relating to your employment practices. We, using our own counsel, at your sole cost and expense, may control any matter in which we are named or directly affected. Your indemnification of us and your assumption of liabilities and obligations set forth in this Agreement will continue in full force and effect after the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

B. Insurance. Prior to hiring your first employee and/or opening your Franchise Business, you must obtain (at your expense) and maintain in full force and effect during the term of your Franchise Agreement, an insurance policy or policies protecting your franchise business entity, yourself, us, and the officers, directors, partners, agents, and employees of both your business and ours, against any loss, liability, personal injury, death, property damage, or expense whatsoever arising from or occurring upon or in connection with the operation of the Franchise Business. The insurance policies must include, at a minimum: (i) special/causes of loss coverage forms (sometimes called "All Risk coverage") on your business and all fixtures, equipment, supplies and other property used in the operation of your business, for full repair and replacement value of the machinery, equipment and improvements, including full coverage for loss of income resulting from damage to your business without any co-insurance clause, except that an appropriate deductible clause is permitted; (ii) business interruption insurance covering a minimum 12 months loss of income, including coverage for our Royalties with us named as a loss payee regarding those fees; (iii) professional liability insurance with minimum limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence and $1,000,000 aggregate; (iv) comprehensive general liability insurance, including bodily injury, product liability, property damage, contractual liability, personal injury and advertising injury insurance, with minimum limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 aggregate; (v) workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance covering all of your employees (vi) umbrella liability insurance with minimum limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence; (vii) property insurance on all furniture, fixtures, equipment, and inventory using 100% of the replacement cost valuation and or a minimum of $500,000; (viii) abuse and molestation insurance with minimum limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 aggregate; (ix) employment practices liability insurance with a minimum policy limit of $500,000; (x) we and our affiliates as named additional insureds on all liability policies required by this Section 10.B; (xi) any other insurance coverages or amounts as required by law or other agreement related to your business. The required insurance coverage must begin as of the date of this Agreement, provided, however, that before the date you open the Franchised Location you will be obligated to carry insurance policies covering only those items specified under numerals (iv), (vi), and (vii) of this Section 10.B.

You must deliver to us, or a third party we designate, at the beginning and annually or at our request a proper certificate evidencing the existence of such insurance coverage and your compliance with the provisions of this Section 10.B. The insurance certificate must show us and our affiliates as additional insureds, include a waiver of subrogation under the General Liability policy in favor of us and provide that we will be given 30 days' prior written notice of material change in or termination or cancellation of the policy. We will communicate the insurance certificate reporting process and may also request copies of all policies.

If you do not procure and maintain the insurance coverage required by this Agreement, we have the right, but not the obligation, to procure insurance coverage and to charge the same to you, together with a reasonable fee for the expenses we incur in doing so, payable by you immediately upon notice. Maintenance of the insurance requirement will not relieve you of the obligations of indemnification. You understand and agree that the coverage required by us represents our minimum requirements only and may not be sufficient to adequately protect your interests. In addition, the coverage may not comply with the terms of other documents to which you are a party or with the insurance requirements in your jurisdiction. You are encouraged to conduct your own evaluation of your minimum insurance requirements to ensure that your interests are adequately protected. You assume all risks in connection with the adequacy of any insurance or self-insurance program and waive any claim against us for any liability costs or expenses arising out of any uninsured claim, in full or in part, of any nature.

We may from time to time modify the required minimum limits and require additional insurance coverages, by providing written notice to you, as conditions require, to reflect changes in relevant circumstances, industry standards, experiences in the Athletic Republic® system, standards of liability and higher damage awards, and you shall immediately procure the amended coverage and promptly forward to us amended Certificates of Insurance evidencing compliance with the required changes.

If you are self-insured and we, in our sole discretion, consider that your coverage represents an adequate substitute for the insurance required in this Section 10.B, we, at your request, may, in our sole discretion, allow you to use your self-insurance instead of the insurance required in this Section 10.B. If we deny your request, you must obtain and maintain the insurance required in this Section 10.B. Furthermore, we may, at any time during the term of this Agreement, withdraw our approval to use your self-insurance instead of the insurance required in this Section 10.B, in which case you must, immediately after we withdraw our approval, obtain and maintain the insurance required in this Section 10.B.

11. NON-COMPETE COVENANTS. You agree that you will receive the benefits of our experience and best practices, valuable training and Confidential Information that you otherwise would not receive or have access to but for the rights licensed to you under this Agreement. You agree to the following provisions.

A. During Term. You, anyone that at any time holds a 20% or greater equity interest in you, your guarantors, Manager and your Head Trainer will not, directly or indirectly, during the Term of this Agreement, on your or their own account or as an employee, consultant, partner, officer, director, shareholder or member of any other person, firm, entity, partnership, corporation or company: own, operate, lease, franchise, engage in, be connected with, have any interest in (provided that you not disclosed such businesses to us before signing the Franchise Agreement), or assist any person or entity in any sports performance training business or a business that specializes in improving an athlete's fundamental movement skills, such as speed, power or agility, or the athlete's functional movement skills, such as first-step quickness, linear speed, multi-direction movement, explosive power and proprioceptive awareness, at any location.

B. After Termination. You, anyone that at any time holds a 20% or greater equity interest in you, your guarantors, Manager and your Head Trainer will not, directly or indirectly, for a period of 2 years after the transfer by you, or the expiration or termination of this Agreement, on your or their own account or as an employee, consultant, partner, officer, director, shareholder, lender, or joint venturer of any other person, firm, entity, partnership, corporation or company: own, operate, lease, franchise, conduct, engage in, be connected with, have any interest in or assist any person or entity engaged in any sports performance training business or a business that specializes in improving an athlete's fundamental movement skills, such as speed, power or agility, or the athlete's functional movement skills, such as first-step quickness, linear speed, multi-direction movement, explosive power and proprioceptive awareness that is located: (i) at your former Franchised Business location; (ii) within the Protected Territory; (iii) at any franchised or licensed business location or any facility using the Trademarks, the Patents Rights or the System (whether it is owned by us or our affiliates or whether it is a licensed or franchised facility) in operation or under construction as of the date of termination, expiration or transfer (each an "Existing Location"); (iv) or within a 25-mile radius of any Existing Location (subject to applicable state law). Additionally, for a period of 2 years after the transfer by you, or the expiration or termination of this Agreement, you agree not to solicit any current, former, or prospective customer of the Franchised Business or any other customer of whom you have become aware as a result of your access to our System or other franchisees for any competitive purpose.

Without limiting the obligation in this Section 11, you must obtain Confidentiality and Non-Compete Agreements in the form attached as Appendix F from all the persons mentioned in this Section 11 and you must deliver such agreements within 5 days from the date we require them.

You agree that the length of time set forth in this Section 11 will be tolled for any period during which you are in breach of the covenants or any other period during which we seek to enforce this Agreement. You agree that the time period and the scope of the covenants set forth in this Section 11 are the reasonable and necessary time and distance needed to protect us if this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason.

Notwithstanding anything in this Section 11, it is expressly agreed that you may, at all times, offer those products and services that you were offering before the date of this Agreement, other than the Products. Furthermore, it is expressly agreed that all the persons or entities mentioned in this Section 11 may engage, in any capacity, in any other facility using the Trademarks, the Patents Rights or the System.

12. TRANSFERS.

A. Conditions to Your Transfer or Assignment. We have entered into this Agreement with specific reliance upon your financial qualifications, experience, skills, and managerial qualifications as being essential to the satisfactory operation of the Franchised Business. This Agreement, and your rights and obligations under it, are and shall remain personal to you. As used in Section 12, the term "Transfer" shall mean any sale, assignment, gift, pledge, mortgage or any other encumbrance, transfer by bankruptcy, transfer by your disability or death or by judicial order, merger, consolidation, share exchange, transfer by operation of law or otherwise, whether direct or indirect, voluntary or involuntary, of this Agreement or any interest in it, or any rights or obligations arising under it, or of any material portion of your assets used to operate the Franchised Business, or of any interest in you, or if you are a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity, a transfer, pledge, assignment, or other disposition of 50% or more of the interest in your entity (which shall include the cumulative effects of any transfers within a 12-month period). You (and your shareholders, partners and members) will not directly or indirectly make a Transfer without (i) first tendering to us the right of first refusal in accordance with Section 12.B and (ii) our prior written consent. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, we will not unreasonably withhold our consent to a Transfer, subject to all of the following conditions being satisfied: (a) you have first tendered to us the right of first refusal in accordance with Section 12.B and we do not exercise such right; (b) the assignee must meet all of our then-current requirements for any potential new franchisee at the time of the proposed Transfer, including passing a background check, completing a credit check, have no personal bankruptcy filings, having a net worth in excess of $500,000, is not currently operating a competing business, and has the passion, business experience and personal capability to be a successful Training Center owner; (c) you are in full compliance with all your obligations under all Franchise Agreements and all other agreements executed between you and us or our affiliates, and all your debts and financial obligations to us and our affiliates, your suppliers and your landlord are current; (d) you and your owners execute a written agreement in a form satisfactory to us in which you and your owners covenant to observe all applicable post-term obligations and covenants contained in this Agreement; (e) the proposed transferee executes our then-current standard form of franchise agreement (modified to reflect that the agreement relates to a Transfer), the terms of which may differ from this Agreement (including different Royalty fees, BOS requirements and Fees, Marketing Fees, and Protected Territory) and pays us the then-current On-Boarding Fee; (f) the proposed transferee agrees in writing to perform the maintenance, remodeling and re-equipping of the Franchised Business that we determine necessary to bring the Franchised Business in compliance with our then-current standards, regardless of the cost of such modernizations, interior branding, and/or equipment replacements; (g) before the date of the proposed Transfer, the proposed transferee's Manager successfully completes the training and instruction as we deem necessary; (h) you and all holders of an interest in you execute a general release in a form similar to that attached as Appendix D; (i) unless the Transfer is to an immediate family member, you pay us a $10,000 transfer fee (the "Transfer Fee"). The Transfer Fee must be paid at the time you submit an application for consent to Transfer and the Transfer Fee is nonrefundable even if, for any reason, the proposed Transfer does not occur, in which case the Transfer Fee you paid us for the failed Transfer will not be applied to any future attempted Transfer; (j) the transferee pays us a portion of the $38,000 BAP Fee proportionate to the services that will be required by us to on-board and educate them on our System, BOS and business operations for an effective transfer of ownership, and (k) you comply with any other conditions that we reasonably require from time to time as part of our Transfer policies.

You will not Transfer your interest in this Agreement to any person, partnership, corporation or entity that owns, operates, franchises, develops, consults with, manages, is involved in, controls, or is controlled by any person with an interest in any competing sports performance training or adult fitness business or if the Transfer will cause the provision in Section 11.A to be violated. Any attempted Transfer by you without our prior written consent or otherwise not in compliance with the terms of this Agreement will be void, your interest in this Agreement will be voluntarily abandoned and it will provide us with the right to terminate this Agreement immediately. You acknowledge and agree that the restrictions imposed on the Transfer are reasonable and necessary to protect the goodwill associated with the System, the Patents Rights and the Trademarks, as well as our reputation and image, and are for the protection of us, you, and all our other franchisees.

B. Right of First Refusal. You will not directly or indirectly sell, assign, trade, transfer, lease, sublease, or otherwise dispose of any interest in or any part of the equipment that we sell to you under the Equipment Purchase Agreement, or that is leased to you by a third party, and any other equipment and any accessories that you subsequently acquire from us or that are required by us without first offering the same to us in writing at a price equal to the higher of (i) the net book value of the Fitness Equipment depreciated to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law or (ii) the amount offered to you by the approved third party, which holds a current operating agreement in good-standing with us. Upon our receipt of written notice specifying the proposed price and terms of the proposed sale or transfer, we will give you written notice within 60 business days after we receive the notice, which will either waive our right of first refusal to purchase or will state an interest in negotiating the purchase according to the proposed terms. If you and we begin negotiations pursuant to this Section 12.B, you may not sell to a third party for at least 90 days or until we and you agree in writing that the negotiations have terminated, whichever occurs last. If we waive our right to purchase, you will have the right to complete the sale or transfer of the Fitness Equipment according to the terms set forth in the written notice to us, but not upon more favorable terms to the proposed buyer. If you desire to sell, transfer or assign any of the Fitness Equipment to any proposed buyer upon terms more favorable than those which you have offered to us, you may not do so without first offering the Fitness Equipment to us upon the more favorable terms in accordance with the provisions of this Section 12.B. Any such sale, transfer or assignment to a third party must hold a current franchise agreement with us is expressly subject to the provisions set forth in this Section 12 and any lease agreement you may have executed. Your obligations under this Agreement will not be affected or changed because of our non-acceptance of your written offer.

C. Transfer by Us. We may transfer or assign this Agreement or any or all of the rights, interests, benefits or obligations arising under it without restriction. Upon any transfer or assignment of this Agreement by us, we shall be released from all obligations and liabilities arising or accruing in connection with this Agreement after the date of such transfer or assignment.

13. DEFAULT; TERMINATION.

A. Termination by Us with Notice to Cure. You shall be in default for any failure to maintain or comply with any of the terms, covenants, specifications, standards, procedures or requirements imposed by this Agreement or in any Manual, policy, procedure or statement or other written document provided by us, or to carry out the terms of this Agreement in good faith. Except as provided in Section 13.B, we will provide you with 30-days written notice of your default and of our intent to terminate the Agreement. If the defaults specified in the notice are not cured within the 30-day period, this Agreement shall automatically terminate upon the expiration of the 30-day period without further notice. Such defaults shall include without limitation, the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) a threat or danger to public health or safety results from the construction, maintenance or operation of the Franchised Business; (ii) you use non-approved equipment in the Franchised Business; or (iii) you, by act or omission regarding the maintenance or operation of the Franchised Business, permit a continuing violation of any applicable law, ordinance, rule or regulation of a governmental body.

B. Termination by Us with No Opportunity to Cure. You shall be in default and we may, at our option, terminate this Agreement without affording you any opportunity to cure the default, effective immediately on our issuance of written notice of termination, upon the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) any material misrepresentation or omission in your franchise application; (ii) you cease to operate the Franchised Business for 10 consecutive business days (as defined in Section 8.A) or 15 or more business days in any 12-month period or otherwise your voluntary abandonment of this Agreement or the Franchised Location; (iii) the loss of your lease; (iv) the failure to timely cure a default under the lease; (v) any unauthorized use of the Confidential Information; (vi) any violation to the obligations not to compete under Section 11.A; (vii) insolvency of you, any of your owners or a guarantor; (viii) any portion of the Franchised Business becomes subject to an attachment, garnishment, levy or seizure by any creditor or any other person; (ix) any default under this Agreement that materially impairs the goodwill associated with any of the Trademarks; (x) conviction of you, any of your owners or guarantors of (or pleading no contest to) any felony regardless of the nature of the charges, or any misdemeanor that brings or tends to bring any of the Trademarks into disrepute or impairs or tends to impair your reputation or the goodwill of the Trademarks or the Franchised Business; (xi) you fail, refuse or neglect to pay Royalties or Marketing Fees to us within 30 days after the Royalties or Marketing Fees become due; (xii) intentionally understating or underreporting Gross Sales, Royalties Fees or any understatement or 5% variance on a subsequent audit within a 3 year period under Section 4.G; (xiii) failure to secure a site for the Franchised Location by the date set forth in Section 2.A; (xiv) failure to open the Franchised Location by the date set forth in Section 2.B; (xv) failure to order or take delivery of the equipment by the dates set forth in Section 8.C; (xvi) you or any of your owners, guarantors, or Facility Director acquire, directly or indirectly, ownership or an interest in, or otherwise becomes involved in a competing business; (xvii) any unauthorized transfer or assignment in violation of Sections 12.A or 12.B; (xviii) any default by you that is the second same or similar default within any 12-month period or the fourth default of any type within any 24-month period; (xix) you offer any part of the Training Programs at a location not listed in Appendix D; or (xx) termination of another franchise agreement or any other agreement between you or your affiliates and us or our affiliates due to you or your affiliates' default(s).

You acknowledge and agree that a breach or violation of any term, covenant, condition, warranty, representation or other obligation by you under this Agreement (other than a breach or violation that may be cured under Section 13.A above and that is in fact cured within 30 days after notice) shall constitute a material breach and default under this Agreement. Any breach or violation that may be cured under Section 13.A. above and that is not in fact cured within the 30-day period shall also constitute a material breach and default under this Agreement.

The Sprinting Treadmill, the Hockey Treadmill, the 3PQ and the ART Software include a shut-off device that we can activate remotely. In addition to our right to terminate this Agreement, we will have the right to shut-off the Sprinting Treadmill, the Hockey Treadmill, the 3PQ, and deny access to all BOS software and services, including the training center's online scheduling system, athlete assessment app, website and staff email accounts in the event that you fail to make payments to us when due or default on any payments owed to us. Once the treadmill's shut-off device is activated, a code will be required to reactivate the equipment; we will provide you the code to reactivate the equipment once you are current on all payments owed to us and are otherwise in full compliance with your obligations under this Agreement.

C. Automatic Termination. This Agreement will automatically terminate without notice or an opportunity to cure upon the occurrence of any of the following: (a) if you make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, are adjudicated bankrupt or insolvent, file or acquiesce in the filing of a petition seeking reorganization or arrangement under any federal or state bankruptcy or insolvency law, or consent to or acquiesce in the appointment of a trustee or receiver for you or the ; or (b) if proceedings are commenced to have you adjudicated bankrupt or to seek your reorganization under any state or federal bankruptcy or insolvency law, and such proceedings are not dismissed within 60 days, or a trustee or receiver is appointed for you or the Franchised Business without your consent, and the appointment is not vacated within 60 days.

14. POST-TERM OBLIGATIONS. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement:

A. Obligations upon Termination. All of your rights to the use of the Trademarks and all other rights and licenses granted in this Agreement will revert to us without further act or deed of any party and all of your right, title and interest in, to and under this Agreement will become our property. You shall immediately cease to operate the Franchised Business, and shall not, directly or indirectly, represent to the public or hold yourself out as an Athletic Republic® franchisee or to have any affiliation with Athletic Republic® regarding such business. You shall immediately and permanently cease to use, in any manner, all Confidential Information, including Manuals, protocols, methods, procedures, best practices, and techniques used by or associated with the System, the Trademarks and the distinctive forms, trade dress, slogans, signs, symbols, logos and devices associated with the System, BOS software and services and all or any portion of point-of-sale, advertising or marketing materials developed, furnished or approved by us. You shall immediately return to us all Manuals (including, without limitation, all the protocols) that have been printed or provided and any other property held or used by you that is owned by us, and you shall cease to use, and shall at our option and at our request, either destroy or convey to us, all signs, displays, stationery, forms and any other materials that bear or display the Trademarks. If we request that you destroy any such materials, you shall, promptly after destruction of such materials, provide us with a letter on your letterhead and signed by your Owner(s), President or Chief Executive Officer attesting that the materials have been properly destroyed in accordance with applicable law. You shall immediately return to us, at your own expense, all of the ThrowingCords, KickingCords, PlyoCords, HittingCords, StartCords, SprintCords, PowerCords, Hamstring Cords, Warm-up Cords, Hip Cords, EZ Spot connection and all other cords, belts, lanyards and harnesses used at the Franchised Business. You must immediately comply with the post-term non-compete obligations under Section 11.B. You must immediately cancel or assign to us, at our option, any assumed name rights or equivalent registrations filed with authorities. You shall immediately pay all sums owed to us (including minimum Royalties and Marketing Fees for the remainder of the entire Term of this Agreement from the date of termination, unless you terminate the Agreement due to our breach and pursuant to the provisions of Section 13.C), our affiliates or designees and all sums you owe to third parties, and such sums shall include all damages, losses, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by us as a result of your default and the termination of this Agreement and you agree that until such obligation is paid in full, you will grant us a lien against all of the personal property, furnishings, equipment, signs, fixtures and inventory owned by you and used in the Franchised Business. You must continue to comply with the confidentiality provisions of Section 8.G. You must, within 10 days after termination or expiration of this Agreement, at your expense and subject to Section 14.B, remove or obliterate all signage, displays or other materials (electronic or tangible) in your possession at the Franchised Location or elsewhere that bear any of the Trademarks or names or material confusingly similar to the Trademarks and so alter the appearance of the Franchised Location as to differentiate the Franchised Location unmistakably from duly licensed Athletic Republic® franchisees. At a minimum the modifications shall include: (i) removal of all signage and all interior branding elements; (ii) alteration of the white, red, gray, blue and black color scheme and decor; and (iii) discontinuation of the use of any item containing any of the Trademarks. If, however, you fail to comply with these provisions within 10 days from the date of termination of this Agreement, we shall have the right to enter the Franchised Location and remove all signage, displays or other materials in your possession at the Franchised Location or elsewhere that bear any of the Trademarks or names or material confusingly similar to the Trademarks, and you must reimburse us for our costs incurred. You shall furnish us with written evidence satisfactory to us of compliance with all the obligations set forth in this Section 14.A within 30 days after termination or expiration of this Agreement. You shall also pay to us all damages, losses, costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by us subsequent to the termination or expiration of this Agreement in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any term, covenant or provision of this Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in the event of expiration or termination of this Agreement, you will remain liable for your obligations pursuant to this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us or our affiliates that expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement, including the payment of the minimum Royalties and Marketing Fees for the entire Term of the Agreement as defined under Sections 3 and 4.

B. Purchase Option. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement we shall have the right to purchase or designate a third party that will purchase all or any portion of the equipment purchased by you in the Equipment Purchase Agreement and any other equipment and any accessories that you subsequently purchase from us or that are required by us. We will have 60 days from the date of termination or expiration to notify you of our decision to exercise our rights under Section 14.B. In the event of termination, the purchase price for the assets we decide to purchase shall be equal to the lesser of the Net Depreciated Book Value determined in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States or 35% of the purchase price paid by you for such asset. In the event of expiration, the purchase price for the assets we or our designated party decide to purchase shall be equal to the greater of the Net Depreciated Book Value determined in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States or (i) 10% of the purchase price paid by you for such assets if the expiration occurs at the end of the initial term or (ii) 5% of the purchase price paid by you for such assets if the expiration occurs at the end of the first renewal term or (iii) 1% of the purchase price paid by you for such assets if the expiration occurs after the end of the second renewal term.

You will be responsible for all travel expenses, proper equipment packaging and palletizing, per our instructions, removal and freight charges (including the specialized tools required for disassembly) for returning equipment purchased or recovered from your Franchised Business. We will deduct the total amount of the expenses we incur from the purchase price we must pay you if we exercise our purchase option and make adjustments to the valuation if the equipment is damaged due to improper packaging.

Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, your rights to all software covered by the BOS Fee will terminate, along with the license to use the 3PQ software, the AR Vision software, and there will be no re-purchase value assigned to the software used in the Business Operating Systems, the Business Acceleration Program, any of the balance, slam or medicine balls, free weights, the 3PQ software and computer, Ground-Based training equipment, Recovery and Health equipment, Treadmill Platforms, Backpedal Mirror, PlyoBoxes,

PlyoFoams, branded Wall Spines and Storage Racks, the overhead safety rail and hockey treadmill lanyards, or the AR Vision system all of which must be returned to us.

Your lease agreement for the Franchised Location and the documents executed between you and any person or entity providing you financing to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire rights to the equipment and accessories used in the operation of the Franchised Business must include a provision stating that your landlord and the person or entity providing you such financing acknowledge our rights to repurchase provided under Sections 12.B and 14.B and agree that such rights will have priority over any right they may have on such equipment and accessories, as provided as the Franchise Lease Stipulation in Appendix J. You must provide us copies of the draft of your lease and the documents to be executed between you and any person or entity providing you the financing including such provision. You may not execute such documents before we provide our written approval to the provision referenced in this paragraph. If you fail to comply with your obligations under this paragraph and as a result of your omission our rights under Sections 12.B or 14.B are affected, you agree to pay us $75,000 as fair and reasonable liquidated damages (but not as a penalty). You agree that this amount is for the damages that we will suffer for our inability to exercise our rights to repurchase the equipment and accessories used in the operation of the Franchised Business and that it would be difficult to calculate with certainty the amount of damage that we will incur. You shall grant us a right to a security interest in the equipment we provide you to ensure payment of Royalty Fees, Marketing Fees, BOS Fees and other obligations through the Term of the Agreement and you hereby authorize us to file a UCC§1 with the Department of Commerce or other such government entity in the state where the Franchise Business is located. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a court determines that this liquidated damages payment is unenforceable, then we may pursue all other available remedies, including consequential damages.

C. Attorney in Fact; Expenses. We may, if you fail or refuse to do so, execute in your name and on your behalf, any actions or documents that may be necessary to affect your obligations under Section 12.B or this Section 14, and you irrevocably appoint us as your attorney in fact to do so, which appointment is coupled with an interest. You shall pay to us all damages, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by us subsequent to the termination or expiration of this Agreement in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any term, covenant or provision of this Agreement.

15. DISPUTE RESOLUTION. The following provisions apply regarding dispute resolution:

A. Applicable Law and Waiver. Subject to our rights under federal trademark laws and the parties' rights under the Federal Arbitration Act in accordance with Section 15.B of this Agreement, the parties' rights under this Agreement and the relationship between the parties is governed by, and will be interpreted in accordance with, the laws (statutory and otherwise) of the State of Utah. You waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the rights and protections that might be provided through the laws of any state relating to franchises or business opportunities.

B. Arbitration; Mediation. Except as qualified below, any dispute between you, your affiliates, owners or guarantors and us or our affiliates, arising under, out of, in connection with or in relation to this Agreement, the Franchised Business, or the parties' relationship must be submitted to binding arbitration under the authority of the Federal Arbitration Act and must be arbitrated in accordance with the then-current rules and procedures and under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association. The arbitration must take place in Salt Lake City, Utah. The arbitrators will be bound to the Federal Rules of Evidence and Discovery and shall be governed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The arbitrators shall have no authority to determine class action claims or other consolidated claims and shall have no authority to amend or modify the terms of the Agreement. The decision of the arbitrators will be final and binding on all parties to the dispute, provided, however, that the arbitrators may not under any circumstances: (i) stay the effectiveness of any pending termination of this Agreement; (ii) assess punitive or exemplary damages; or (iii) make any award which extends, modifies or suspends any lawful term of this Agreement or any reasonable standard of business performance that we set. A judgment may be entered upon the arbitration award by any state or federal court in Utah or the state of the Franchised Location.

Before the filing of any arbitration, as a pre-condition to the filing of any arbitration, the parties agree to mediate any dispute that does not include the injunctive relief or specific performance actions covered under Section 15.C, provided that the party seeking mediation must notify the other party of its intent to mediate before the termination of this Agreement. Mediation will be conducted by a mediator or mediation program agreed to by the parties. Persons authorized to settle the dispute must attend all mediation sessions in person. The parties agree to participate in the mediation proceedings in good faith with the intention of resolving the dispute. If the parties do not reach resolution during the mediation, the parties are free to pursue arbitration after the expiration of five (5) business days following the conclusion of the mediation. Mediation is a compromise negotiation for purposes of the federal and state rules of evidence and the entire process is confidential. Each party will bear their own costs and will split the cost of the mediator.

C. Injunctive Relief; Exemptions to Arbitration. You recognize that your failure to fulfill your obligations provided under this Agreement may cause irreparable damages to us or other franchisees. Therefore, notwithstanding Section 15.B above, it is mutually agreed that in the event of a breach or threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by you, we will forthwith be entitled to an injunction restraining such breach or to a decree of specific performance, without showing or proving any actual damage, together with recovery of reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs incurred in obtaining said equitable relief, until the time a final and binding determination is made by the arbitrators. The foregoing equitable remedies are in addition to, and not in lieu of, all other remedies or rights that the parties might otherwise have by virtue of any breach of this Agreement by the other party. Furthermore, we have the right to begin a civil action against you or take other appropriate action for the following reasons: to collect sums of money due to us; to compel your compliance with trademark standards and requirements to protect the goodwill of the Trademarks; to compel you to compile and submit required reports to us; or to permit evaluations or audits authorized by this Agreement.

D. Venue. Any cause of action, claim, suit or demand allegedly arising from or related to the terms of this Agreement or the relationship of the parties that is not subject to arbitration under Section 15.B must be brought in the Federal District Court for the District of Utah or in the State courts located in Salt Lake City, Utah. The parties irrevocably submit themselves to, and consent to, the exclusive jurisdiction of said courts.

E. Jury Waiver. All parties irrevocably waive jury trial in any action or proceeding whether at law or in equity.

F. Waiver of Punitive Damages. You, your owners and guarantors and your affiliates and us and our affiliates agree to waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the right to or claim for any punitive or exemplary damages against the other and agree that in the event of any dispute between them, each will be limited to the recovery of actual damages sustained.

G. Attorneys' Fees. If you are in breach of any monetary or non-monetary obligation under this Agreement or any related agreement between you and us and/or our affiliates, and we engage an attorney to enforce our rights (whether or not formal judicial proceedings are initiated), you must pay all of our reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and litigation expenses we incur. If you institute any legal action to interpret or enforce the terms of this Agreement, and your claim in such action is denied or the action is dismissed, we are entitled to recover our reasonable attorneys' fees, and all other reasonable costs and expenses incurred in defending against same, and to have such an amount awarded as part of the judgment in the proceeding.

H. Survival. The provisions of this Section 15 will survive the termination of this Agreement. You are aware of the business purposes and needs underlying the language of this Section 15, and with a complete understanding of such purposes and needs agree to be bound in the manner stated in this Section 15.

16. MISCELLANEOUS. The parties agree to the following provisions:

A. Adaptations and Variances. You acknowledge and agree that because complete and detailed uniformity under varying circumstances may not be practical, there may be variations from standard specifications and practices among Athletic Republic® franchisees and that you shall not be entitled to require us to grant like or similar variations or privileges to you.

B. Interpretation of Rights and Obligations. Whenever this Agreement provides that we have a certain right, that right is absolute, and the parties intend that our exercise of that right will not be subject to any limitation or review. We have the right to operate, administrate, develop, and change the System in any manner that is not specifically precluded by the provisions of this Agreement. Whenever we reserve discretion in a particular area or where we agree to exercise our rights reasonably or in good faith, we will satisfy our obligations whenever we exercise Reasonable Business Judgment in making our decision or exercising our rights. Our decisions or actions will be deemed to be the result of Reasonable Business Judgment even if other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternatives are available, if our decision or action is intended, in whole or significant part, to promote or benefit the System generally, even if the decision or action also promotes our financial or other individual interest. Examples of items that will promote or benefit the System include enhancing the value of the Trademarks or Patents Rights, improving customer service and satisfaction, improving product quality, improving uniformity, enhancing or encouraging modernization and improving the competitive position of the System.

C. Claims. You (and your officers, directors, owners and guarantors) expressly agree that no claim or cause of action may be filed or maintained against us and/or any of our present and former owners, officers, directors, employees, representatives, affiliates, parent companies, subsidiaries, predecessor, successors and assigns (each a “Franchisor Related Party”) arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the relationship established by this Agreement, the offer and sale of the franchise opportunity, the Equipment, and/or the operation of the Franchised Business unless such claim or cause of action is filed before the expiration of the “Limitations Period”. For purposes of this paragraph, the term “Limitations Period” means: one (1) year from the earlier of: (a) the date of the act, transaction or occurrence giving rise to the claim against us or a Franchisor Related Party; or (b) the date on which you (your officers, directors, owners and/or guarantors) knew or reasonably should have known of the facts or circumstances giving rise to the claim against us or a Franchisor Related Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Limitations Period is unenforceable under Utah law (or, in the event a court or an arbitrator determines a different state’s law applies, then under that state’s law), then the Limitations Period shall be equal to the shortest time period for a limitation of claims provision that is enforceable under the applicable law.

This contractual limitation of claims provision applies to all claims, whether based on contract, tort, statute, or any other legal theory. You acknowledge that this limitation of claims provision and the Limitations Period is a material inducement for us to enter into this Agreement and that it is intended to provide certainty and finality to potential disputes. To the fullest extent permitted by law, you hereby waive any longer statutory limitation period and agree that the foregoing limitation is reasonable and enforceable.

D. Severability. Should one or more clauses of this Agreement be held void or unenforceable for any reason by any court of competent jurisdiction, such clause or clauses will be deemed to be separable in such jurisdiction and the remainder of this Agreement is valid and in full force and effect and the terms of this Agreement must be equitably adjusted to compensate the appropriate party for any consideration lost because of the elimination of such clause or clauses. It is the intent and expectation of each of the parties that each provision of this Agreement will be honored, carried out and enforced as written.

Equipment Purchase Agreement

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this __ day of _____, 202_, by and between Athletic Republic, Inc., a North Dakota Corporation, with its principal place of business at 3126 Quarry Road, Suite F, Park City, Utah 84098 (“Seller”) and _____ (“Buyer”).

RECITALS

- A. On the date of this Agreement, Buyer and Seller are executing a franchise agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”).
- B. Pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, Buyer must purchase certain minimum equipment to operate the business franchised under the Franchise Agreement, and Buyer has the option to purchase any additional equipment that Buyer deems appropriate.
- C. All Fitness Equipment purchased by Buyer as part of the initial equipment order will be processed and placed by the Seller.

Therefore, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants and reliance of the parties, the parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

- 1. DEFINITIONS. For the purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions shall apply:
 - A. “Fitness Equipment” shall mean the Fitness Equipment and devices listed on Schedule A attached hereto and made a part hereof.
 - B. “Installation Services” shall mean the installation, set up, test and related services of the Fitness Equipment as defined in the specifications for the Fitness Equipment.
- 2. TITLE. Seller hereby sells to Buyer the Fitness Equipment identified on Schedule A. Buyer shall order the Fitness Equipment from Seller no later than 250 days from the date of the Franchise Agreement. Upon payment to Seller of the purchase price set forth on Schedule A, title to the Fitness Equipment and User Documentation shall vest in Buyer.
- 3. SHIPPING AND PACKAGING.
 - A. The mode of shipment of the Fitness Equipment shall be selected by Seller and the cost of such shipment and packaging shall be added to the purchase price set forth in Schedule A.
 - B. The Fitness Equipment shall be packaged in accordance with Seller’s then current packaging specifications or the specifications of the manufacturer.
 - C. The Fitness Equipment shall be delivered “ex works” (as such term is defined in INCOTERMS 2010 published by the International Chamber of Commerce) Seller’s facility in Salt Lake City, Utah or another facility designated by Seller in writing, and Buyer assumes all risk of loss thereafter. Buyer shall take delivery of the Fitness Equipment no later than 250 days from the date of the Franchise Agreement, provided that Buyer has previously paid the purchase price in full.

D. Seller and Buyer shall mutually agree to pre-set a ship date for the Fitness Equipment, as part of the Training Center Opening schedule (the "Equipment Ship Date").

4. PURCHASE PRICE, TAXES AND PAYMENT TERMS.

A. The purchase price for the Fitness Equipment shall be as set forth in Schedule A. The purchase price, together with all applicable shipping charges, packaging charges, installation charges, other special charges and taxes, including all penalties, but less any credit for deposit, shall be payable in full to Seller as described in Schedule A and is non-refundable upon payment. Buyer shall pay a late payment charge of 1.5% per month, or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law, whichever is less, on any unpaid amount for each calendar month or fraction thereof that any payments are in arrears to Seller.

B. Buyer shall pay all taxes based on or in any way measured by this Agreement, the Fitness Equipment or any services related thereto, including any personal property taxes. If Buyer elects to challenge the applicability of any such tax, Buyer shall pay such tax to Seller and Buyer may thereafter challenge such taxes and seek refund thereof.

C. Given the supply challenges and the variability of the price for steel, Buyer agrees that Seller has the right to modify the Fitness Equipment pricing at any point prior to Buyer placing the equipment order.

5. INSTALLATION SERVICES.

A. Buyer shall have the exclusive responsibility for preparing and maintaining the site for the Fitness Equipment, including but not limited to providing the appropriate support, power, lighting, internet access available for all the Fitness Equipment, and other services associated with the operation of the Fitness Equipment and obtaining and maintaining any necessary permits for any particular construction.

Buyer must complete and return Sellers 'Training Center Readiness Report' no less than 3 weeks prior to the Equipment Ship Date to verify the Training Center is ready to receive and install the Fitness Equipment. Should the Training Center not be ready to receive and install the Fitness Equipment, the Equipment Ship Date may be changed up to two weeks prior to the pre-set Equipment Ship Date without any additional charge. If the Equipment Ship Date is changed less than one week prior to the Equipment Ship Date or if the Training Center is not ready to receive and install equipment, meaning that all tasks on Training Center Readiness Report have not been properly completed prior to the delivery of the Fitness Equipment, then Buyer agrees to pay Seller a surcharge of $5,000 to cover the additional costs Seller will incur to install the Fitness Equipment.

B. If the Fitness Equipment includes a Hockey Treadmill, the Buyer will have the responsibility for the construction and sound-proofing of the Hockey Treadmill platform, to the minimum of our specifications and any construction of a surrounding enclosure, as well as the mounting of the Overhead Safety Rail system, after the Hockey Treadmill is installed.

C. Buyer is responsible for purchasing and installing all mirrors, including but not limited to, the mirrors placed in front of the Super Running Treadmills, on the Treadmill Back Pedal Mirror Stand, and in front of the PlyoFloor.

D. Buyer will pay the Seller its then current fee to unload, unpack, place in position, install and set-up of the Fitness Equipment. The cost of the services ranges between $4,000 - $20,000 and the actual amount among other considerations will depend on the Training Center's location, the accessibility of the job site, the amount of equipment being installed, the availability of an overhead/garage door into the space, and having to navigate curbs, stairs, single doors, and low height doors, and access to the appropriate power service, internet, heating/cooling and water, and the amount of time required to complete the installation. Buyer must pay Seller such amounts to provide the appropriate tools, forklift(s), forklift operator(s), scissor lifts, pallet jacks, and all other equipment and labor necessary to fulfill Buyer's obligations under this paragraph. Buyer shall bear all costs for the performance of such Installation Services by others. Such amounts are fully earned upon payment and are not refundable. Seller will provide Buyer assistance with the installation of the equipment and Buyer will be obligated to reimburse Seller for all the expenses Seller incurs in providing this assistance.

6. WARRANTY.

Buyer shall be solely responsible for the selection, use, efficiency and suitability of the Fitness Equipment for its intended purpose. Seller warrants that, under normal use and service, the Fitness Equipment shall be merchantable. However, Buyer acknowledges that Seller is not the manufacturer of the equipment, but only the distributor thereof. If the Fitness Equipment is not free from defects in material or workmanship, Buyer shall give Seller written notice thereof and Seller will assist Buyer to correct the failure by repair, replacement or adjustment as may be directed by the manufacturer.

Seller shall not be liable to Buyer if Buyer modifies any of the Fitness Equipment, attachments, features or devices employed on the Fitness Equipment which are not supplied by or not approved in writing by Seller or the manufacturer, or the Fitness Equipment is subject to misuse or abuse.

The Fitness Equipment is provided on an "AS IS" basis, and Seller shall have no liability to Buyer other than as specifically assumed by Seller herein.

7. TERMINATION/CANCELLATION.

A. This Agreement may be terminated or cancelled by Seller if:

- (1) Buyer fails to pay Seller the purchase price;
- (2) Buyer is in default in any other provision of this Agreement and such default has not been cured within 20 days of written notice given by Seller;
- (3) Buyer becomes insolvent or seeks protection, voluntarily or involuntarily under any bankruptcy laws; or
- (4) The Franchise Agreement is terminated.

B. In the event of any termination/cancellation of this Agreement, Seller may:

- (1) Declare all amounts owed Seller to be immediately due and payable;
- (2) Enter Buyer's premises and repossess the Fitness Equipment and all other items supplied by Seller; and
- (3) Cease performance of all of Seller's obligations under this or any other agreement with Buyer without liability to Seller.

C. In addition, if the Franchise Agreement is transferred, terminated or expires, Seller shall have the option to repurchase all or part of the Fitness Equipment pursuant to the terms of the Franchise Agreement.

D. The foregoing rights and remedies of Seller shall be cumulative and in addition to all other rights and remedies available to Seller in law and in equity.

8. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. In no event shall Seller be liable to Buyer for any indirect, special or consequential damages or lost profits, even if Seller has been advised of the possibility thereof, arising out of or related to this Agreement or the performance or breach thereof. In no event shall Seller be liable to Buyer for any damages resulting from or related to any failure or delay of Seller in the delivery or installation of the Fitness Equipment or in the performance of Installation Services or other services under this Agreement.

9. GENERAL.

A. This Agreement shall be deemed effective upon execution thereof by Buyer and acceptance thereof by an authorized representative of Seller.

B. Any cause of action arising out of or related to this Agreement must be brought no later than one year after the cause of action has incurred. This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of Utah and any dispute arising therefrom shall be venued in the State of Utah.

C. This Agreement supersedes all prior understandings, writings, proposals, representations, or communications, oral or written, of either party. This Agreement may only be amended by a writing executed by the authorized representatives of both parties.

1. Confidant agrees that (a) it will treat as confidential and will not disclose the Confidential Information which may be made or become available to Confidant; (b) it will maintain in a secure place any Confidential Information delivered to it; (c) it will prevent disclosure of any Confidential Information by any employee, agent, or representative of Confidant and assume liability for any breach of this Confidentiality Agreement, or for any other unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information, by Confidant or any of Confidant's employees, agents, or representatives; and (d) it will not use any Confidential Information for any purpose other than in furtherance of its relationship with Franchisee or for any purpose which may be detrimental to AR or AR's present or potential business or shareholders.

2. Confidant represents and warrants that as of this date, Confidant has never disclosed Confidential Information to any third party.

3. Nothing stated herein shall preclude the disclosure of Confidential Information in response to a valid order of a court, governmental agency or other governmental body or any political subdivision thereof or as otherwise required by law, provided, however, that if Confidant is requested pursuant to, or required by, applicable law, regulation or legal process to disclose any Confidential Information, Confidant will notify AR and Franchisee promptly so that AR and Franchisee may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy or, in AR's sole discretion, waive compliance with the terms of this Agreement. Confidant agrees to use reasonable efforts to cooperate with AR and Franchisee in connection with AR's and Franchisee's efforts to prevent disclosure or seek confidential treatment or any other remedy respecting such requested or required disclosure.

4. The foregoing equitable remedies are in addition to, and not in lieu of, all other remedies or rights that AR might otherwise have by virtue of any breach of this Agreement by Confidant.

8. No modification or waiver of any of the provisions hereof, or any representation, promise or addition hereto, or waiver of any breach hereof, will be binding upon a party unless made in writing and signed by the party to be charged thereby and by AR. No waiver of any particular breach will be deemed to apply to any other breach, whether prior or subsequent to a waiver. This Agreement may not be assigned by Confidant without the express prior written consent of AR.

9. The prevailing party in any action or proceeding arising under, out of, in connection with, or in relation to this Agreement will be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

10. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is held void or unenforceable for any reason by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provision will be deemed to be separable and the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

11. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Utah, without regard to any conflict of laws principles. Any cause of action, claim, suit or demand allegedly arising from or related to the terms of this Agreement must be brought in the Federal District Court for the District of Utah or in the State courts located in Salt Lake City, Utah. The parties irrevocably submit themselves to, and consent to, the exclusive jurisdiction of said courts. All parties hereby waive any and all rights to a trial by jury in connection with the enforcement or interpretation by judicial process of any provision of this Agreement, or any legal action initiated for the recovery of damages for breach of this Agreement.

Franchise Stipulations for Lease

Franchise Stipulations: Per the requirements of Tenant's Franchise Agreement with Athletic Republic, Inc. ("Franchisor"), the follow provisions are made a part of this Lease:

1. Landlord acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor shall be afforded the rights to repurchase as set forth in Sections 12.B and 14.B of Tenant's Franchise Agreement with Franchisor and agrees that such rights will have priority over any right Landlord may have on such equipment and accessories. Sections 12.B and 14.B of Tenant's Franchise Agreement read as follows (with "you" referring to the Tenant and "we" or "us" referring to the Franchisor):

12B. Right of First Refusal. You will not directly or indirectly sell, assign, trade, transfer, lease, sublease, or otherwise dispose of any interest in or any part of the equipment that we sell to you under the Equipment Purchase Agreement, or that is leased to you by a third party, and any other equipment and any accessories that you subsequently acquire from us or that are required by us without first offering the same to us in writing at a price equal to the higher of (i) the net book value of the Fitness Equipment depreciated to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law or (ii) the amount offered to you by the approved third party, which holds a current operating agreement in good-standing with us. Upon our receipt of written notice specifying the proposed price and terms of the proposed sale or transfer, we will give you written notice within 60 business days after we receive the notice, which will either waive our right of first refusal to purchase or will state an interest in negotiating the purchase according to the proposed terms. If you and we begin negotiations pursuant to this Section 12.B, you may not sell to a third party for at least 90 days or until we and you agree in writing that the negotiations have terminated, whichever occurs last. If we waive our right to purchase, you will have the right to complete the sale or transfer of the Fitness Equipment according to the terms set forth in the written notice to us, but not upon more favorable terms to the proposed buyer. If you desire to sell, transfer or assign any of the Fitness Equipment to any proposed buyer upon terms more favorable than those which you have offered to us, you may not do so without first offering the Fitness Equipment to us upon the more favorable terms in accordance with the provisions of this Section 12.B. Any such sale, transfer or assignment to a third party must hold a current franchise or license agreement with us is expressly subject to the provisions set forth in this Section 12 and any lease agreement you may have executed. Your obligations under this Agreement will not be affected or changed because of our non-acceptance of your written offer.

B. Purchase Option. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement we shall have the right to purchase or designate a third party that will purchase all or any portion of the equipment purchased by you in the Equipment Purchase Agreement and any other equipment and any accessories that you subsequently purchase from us or that are required by us. We will have 60 days from the date of termination or expiration to notify you of our decision to exercise our rights under this Section 14.B. In the event of termination, the purchase price for the assets we decide to purchase shall be equal to the lesser of the Net Depreciated Book Value determined in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States or 35% of the purchase price paid by you for such asset. In the event of expiration, the purchase price for the assets we or our designated party decide to purchase shall be equal to the lesser of the Net Depreciated Book Value determined in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States or (i) 10% of the purchase price paid by you for such assets if the expiration occurs at the end of the initial term or (ii) 5% of the purchase price paid by you for such assets if the expiration occurs at the end of the first renewal term or (iii) 1% of the purchase price paid by you for such assets if the expiration occurs after the second renewal term.

You will be responsible for all travel expenses, equipment packaging and palletizing, per our instructions, removal and freight charges (including the specialized tools required for disassembly) equipment purchased or recovered from your Franchised Business. We will deduct the total amount of the expenses we incur from the purchase price we must pay you if we exercise our purchase option.

Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, your rights to all software covered by the BOS Fee will terminate, along with the license to use the 3PQ software, the AR Vision software, and there will be no re-purchase value assigned to the software used in the Business Operating Systems, the Business Acceleration Program, any of the balance, slam or medicine balls, free weights, the 3PQ software and computer, Ground-Based training equipment, Recovery and Health equipment, the video analysis software, Treadmill Platforms, Backpedal Mirror, PlyoBoxes, PlyoFoams, branded Wall Spines and Storage Racks, the overhead safety rail and hockey treadmill lanyards, or the AR Vision system all of which must be returned to us.

Your lease agreement for the Franchised Location and the documents executed between you and any person or entity providing you financing to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire rights to the equipment and accessories used in the operation of the Franchised Business must include a provision stating that your landlord and the person or entity providing you such financing acknowledge our rights to repurchase provided under Sections 12.B and 14.B and agree that such rights will have priority over any right they may have on such equipment and accessories, as provided as the Franchise Lease Stipulation in Appendix J. You must provide us copies of the draft of your lease and the documents to be executed between you and any person or entity providing you the financing including such provision. You may not execute such documents before we provide our written approval to the provision referenced in this paragraph. If you fail to comply with your obligations under this paragraph and as a result of your omission our rights under Sections 12.B or 14.B are affected, you agree to pay us $75,000 as fair and reasonable liquidated damages (but not as a penalty). You agree that this amount is for the damages that we will suffer for our inability to exercise our rights to repurchase the equipment and accessories used in the operation of the Franchised Business and that it would be difficult to calculate with certainty the amount of damage that we will incur. You shall grant us a right to a security interest in the equipment we provide you to ensure payment of Royalty fees, Marketing Fees and other obligations through the Term of the Agreement and you hereby authorize us to file a UCC§1 with the Department of Commerce or other such government entity in the state where the Franchise Business is located. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a court determines that this liquidated damages payment is unenforceable, then we may pursue all other available remedies, including consequential damages.

2. In the event of default by Tenant under the Lease, and so long as the Franchise Agreement (or any replacement or restatement thereof) remains in effect, Landlord shall give Franchisor written notice of such default, and Franchisor shall have the right (but not the duty) to assume the Lease and to take possession of the Premises, so long as Franchisor cures the default; such cure must occur within the applicable time for cure stated in the Lease, but in no event will Franchisor have less than 10 days to effect such cure. State Specific Addendum

ATHLETIC REPUBLIC, INC.
ADDENDUM TO CALIFORNIA
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

1. California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to you concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal.
2. The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under Federal Bankruptcy Law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.).
3. The Franchise Agreement contains covenants not to compete which extend beyond the termination of the agreement. These provisions may not be enforceable under California law.
4. Section 31125 of the California Corporation Code requires the franchisor to provide you with a disclosure document before asking you to agree to a material modification of an existing franchise.
5. Neither the franchisor, any person or franchise broker in Item 2 of the Disclosure Document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 79a et seq., suspending of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the law, the law will control or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.
6. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur in Utah.
7. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
8. The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of Utah. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.
9. The Department has determined that we, the franchisor, have not demonstrated we are adequately capitalized and/or that we must rely on franchise fees to fund our operations. The Commissioner has imposed a fee deferral condition, which requires that we defer the collection of the Initial Franchise Fee from California franchisees until we have completed all of our pre-opening obligations and you are open for business. For California franchisees who sign a development agreement, the payment of the Development and Initial Franchise Fee attributable to a specific unit in your development schedule is deferred until that unit is open.
10. The franchise agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
11. You must sign a general release if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporation Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).

12. THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT AT LEAST 14 DAYS PRIOR TO EXECUTION OF AGREEMENT.

13. OUR WEBSITE www.athleticrepublic.com HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION, ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION OR AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.

14. Any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable: (a) representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee; (b) reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents; (c) reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto; or (d) violations of any provision of this division.

15. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ADDENDUM TO ILLINOIS
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Addendum pertains solely to franchises sold in the State of Illinois and is for the purpose of complying with Illinois statutes and regulations. Notwithstanding anything which may be contained in the body of the Franchise Agreement to the contrary, the Agreement is amended to include the following:

1. Section 4.A is amended by adding the following at the end of such Section:

Payment of Initial Franchise and Development Fees will be deferred until Franchisor has met its initial obligations to franchisee, and franchisee has commenced doing business. This financial assurance requirement was imposed by the Office of the Illinois Attorney General due to Franchisor's financial condition.

2. Section 16.E of the Agreement is hereby amended to include the following:

Nothing in this Section 16.E, however, may be construed to mean that you may not rely on the disclosure document that we provided to you in connection with the offer and purchase of your Franchised Business. Although the statements in the disclosure document do not become part of the Franchise Agreement, nothing in the disclosure document may contradict or be inconsistent with the contract terms.

8. The first sentence of Section 15.D is hereby deleted in its entirety, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

Subject to Section 15.B, any cause of action, claim, suit or demand allegedly arising from or related to the terms of this Agreement or the relationship of the parties must be brought in the Illinois federal or state court for the Protected Territory in which you are located.

4. Illinois law, 815 ILCS 705/41, provides that any condition, stipulation, or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of the State of Illinois is void. Therefore, any condition, stipulation, or provision in the Franchise Agreement purporting to bind Illinois franchisees to waive compliance with any provision of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of the State of Illinois is void.

5. Section 15.A is amended to provide that Illinois law will govern the Agreement.

6. Illinois law governs the Franchise Agreement.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal of an agreement are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

7. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on behalf of the Franchisor, franchise seller or other person acting on behalf of a Franchisor. This provision supersedes any other document executed in connection with the franchise.

8. Except as amended herein, the Agreement will be construed and enforced in accordance with its terms.

AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

19. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
20. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
21. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
22. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
23. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
24. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
25. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.
26. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

27. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).
28. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
29. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
30. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
31. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
32. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.
33. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor.
As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
34. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

35. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).
36. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

B. We currently own the Athletic Republic® trademark and certain other trademarks, trade names, copyrights, service marks, trade dress, logos and commercial symbols used in the operation of the training centers.

C. We grant franchises to qualified candidates for the operation of training centers under the Trademarks and using the System.

D. You have had an adequate opportunity to be thoroughly advised of the provisions of this Agreement, our Franchise Agreement, and our disclosure document and have had sufficient time and opportunity to evaluate and investigate our training centers system and the procedures and financial requirements associated with such system as well as the competitive market in which it operates.

E. You desire to develop and operate several training centers which will conform to our uniform requirements and quality standards as established from time to time by us and we, in reliance on your representations, have approved your application to do so in accordance with this Agreement.

In consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants and consideration below, you and we agree as follows:

GRANT OF DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS

1. The following provisions control with respect to the rights granted hereunder:

A. We grant to you, under the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the right to develop and operate _____ (____) Training Centers within the territory described in Appendix A (the “Development Territory”).

B. You are bound by the development schedule (“Development Schedule”) set forth in Appendix B. Time is of the essence for the development of each Training Center in accordance with the Development Schedule. Each Training Center must be developed and operated pursuant to a separate Franchise Agreement that you enter into with us pursuant to Section 3.B below.

C. If you are in compliance with the Development Schedule set forth in Appendix B, we will not develop, operate or grant anyone else a franchise, license or other rights to develop and operate a Training Center or Training Clinic in the Development Territory, except for the Special Sites defined in Section 1.D or as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, prior to the earlier of (i) the expiration or termination of this Agreement; (ii) the date on which you must execute the Franchise Agreement for your last Training Center pursuant to the terms of the Development Schedule; or (iii) the date on which the Protected Territory for your final Training Center under this Agreement is determined. However, in the event that the Development Territory covers more than one city, county or designated market area, the protection for each particular city, county or designated market area shall expire upon the earliest of (1) any of the foregoing events or (2) the date when the Protected Territory for your final Training Center to be developed in such city, county or designated market area under this Agreement is determined. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, upon the earliest occurrence of any of the foregoing events (a) the Development Territory shall expire and (b) we will be entitled to develop and operate, or to franchise others to develop and operate, training centers in the Development Territory, except as may be otherwise provided under any Franchise Agreement that has been executed between us and you and that has not been terminated.

D. The rights granted under this Agreement are limited to the right to develop and operate Training Centers located in the Development Territory. You acknowledge and agree that (i) we and our affiliates have the right outside of the Development Territory to grant other franchises or operate company or affiliate owned training centers and (ii) we and our affiliates have the right to operate training centers or any other business within and outside the Development Territory under trademarks other than the Trademarks, without compensation to any franchisee. Further, you acknowledge that certain locations within the Development Territory are by their nature unique and separate in character from sites generally developed as training centers. As a result, you agree that the following locations (“Special Sites”) are excluded from the Development Territory and we have the right to develop or grant others the right to develop or operate such locations: (a) professional sports teams; (b) college athletic programs; (c) military installations; (d) Olympic training centers; (e) National Team training centers; and (f) sports research centers, provided, however, that any business conducted at any Special Site shall be directly with the professional sports team (or an affiliate of them), with the college, with the governing group of any Olympic or National Governing Body training center, the U.S. military, or for research purposes, as the case may be.

In addition, we and our affiliates have the right to offer, sell and distribute, within or outside the Development Territory, ART software and certain pieces of equipment and accessories that are proprietary to us, including, without limitation, the 3PQ, PowerCords®, ThrowingCords, KickingCords, PlyoCords, HittingCords, SprintCords, StartCords, Hamstring Cords, Warm-up Cords, Hip Cords and wall mounts and all other cords, Balance Discs and Ramps, Recovery programs, Nutritional Supplements and branded apparel that we may offer from time to time, and other pieces of equipment and accessories that we may designate in the future, without compensation to any franchisee, provided that we will offer such products through channels other than training centers.

E. We reserve all rights not expressly granted to you under this Agreement. The rights and privileges granted to you under this Agreement are personal in nature. This Agreement is not a Franchise Agreement and you have no right to use in any manner the Trademarks by virtue of this Agreement. You have no right under this Agreement to sublicense or subfranchise others to operate a business or Training Center or use the System or the Trademarks.

DEVELOPMENT FEE

2. You must pay a Development Fee as described below:
 - A. As consideration for the rights granted in this Agreement, you must pay us a “Development Fee” of $ _____ upon the execution of this Agreement, which equals the Initial Franchise Fee multiplied by the number of Training Centers you agree to develop under this Agreement. The Development Fee is fully earned by us upon execution of this Agreement and is non-refundable. If you sign an Area Development Agreement you must develop a minimum of two (2) Training Centers. We offer a discount on the Initial Franchise Fee when you purchase more than one Training Center under an Area Development Agreement. Two (2) Training Center franchises may be purchased for $100,000, three (3) Training Center franchises for $140,000, and four (4) Training Center Franchises may be purchased for $175,000. Each additional Training Center franchise, after you have purchased four may be added to an Area Development Agreement for $30,000 each.
 - B. You must submit a separate application for each Training Center to be established by you within the Development Territory as further described in Section 3. Upon our consent to the site of your Training Center, a separate Franchise Agreement must be executed for each such Training Center. Upon the execution of each Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement control the establishment and operation of such Training Center.

DEVELOPMENT SCHEDULE

3. The following provisions control with respect to your development rights and obligations:
 - A. You are bound by and strictly must follow the Development Schedule. By the dates set forth in the Development Schedule, you must enter into Franchise Agreements with us pursuant to this Agreement for the number of Training Centers described under the Development Schedule. You also must comply with the Development Schedule requirements regarding the opening date for each Training Center and the cumulative number of Training Centers to be open and continuously operating for business in the Development Territory. If you fail to either execute a Franchise Agreement or to open a Training Center according to the dates set forth in the Development Schedule, we may immediately terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.B. You may open all or any of the Training Centers ahead of schedule if you comply with the conditions set forth in this Agreement for opening each of the Training Centers.
 - B. You may not develop a Training Center unless the following conditions have been met (these conditions apply to each Training Center to be developed in the Development Territory):
 1. You must not be in default of this Agreement, any Franchise Agreement entered into pursuant to this Agreement or any other agreement between you or any of your affiliates and us or any of our affiliates. You also must have satisfied, on a timely basis, all monetary and material obligation under the Franchise Agreements for all existing Training Centers.
 2. You and we must enter into our then-current form of Franchise Agreement for the proposed Training Center. You understand that we may modify the then-current form of Franchise Agreement from time to time and that it may be different than the current form of Franchise Agreement, including different fees and obligations. You understand and agree that any and all Franchise Agreements will be construed and exist independently of this Agreement. Except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, the establishment and operation of each Training Center must be in accordance with the terms of the applicable Franchise Agreement.
 - C. You must begin substantial construction of each of the Training Centers at least 90 days before the deadline to open the Training Center.

D. You acknowledge that you have conducted an independent investigation of the prospects for the establishment of Training Centers within the Development Territory and recognize that the business venture contemplated by this Agreement involves business and economic risks and that your financial and business success will be primarily dependent upon the personal efforts of you and your management and employees.

E. You recognize and acknowledge that this Agreement requires you to open Training Centers in the future pursuant to the Development Schedule. You further acknowledge that the estimated expenses and investment requirements set forth in our franchise disclosure document are subject to increase over time, and that future Training Centers likely will involve greater initial investment and operating capital requirements than those stated in the franchise disclosure document provided to you prior to the execution of this Agreement. You are obligated to execute all the Franchise Agreements and open all the Training Centers on the dates set forth on the Development Schedule, regardless of (i) the requirement of a greater investment; (ii) the financial condition or performance of your prior Training Centers; or (iii) any other circumstances, financial or otherwise. The foregoing shall not be interpreted as imposing any obligation upon us to execute the Franchise Agreements under this Agreement if you have not complied with all conditions necessary to develop the Training Centers.

TERM

4. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with Section 6 of this Agreement and subject to the terms detailed in Section 1.C, the term of this Agreement and all rights granted to you will expire on the date that your last Training Center is scheduled to be opened under the Development Schedule.

YOUR DUTIES

5. You must perform the following obligations:

A. You must comply with all of the terms and conditions of each Franchise Agreement, including the operating requirements specified in each Franchise Agreement.

B. You and your owners, officers, directors, Managers and Head Trainers acknowledge that your entire knowledge of the operation of a Training Center and the System, including the knowledge or know-how regarding the specifications, standards and operating procedures of the services and activities, is derived from information we disclose to you and that certain information is proprietary, confidential and constitutes our trade secrets. The term "trade secrets" refers to the whole or any portion of know-how, knowledge, methods, specifications, processes, procedures and/or improvements regarding the business that is valuable and secret in the sense that it is not generally known to our competitors and any proprietary information contained in the manuals or otherwise communicated to you in writing, verbally or through the internet or other online or computer communications, and any other knowledge or know-how concerning the methods of operation of the Training Centers. We have invested substantial time and resources into developing our trade secrets and we intend to fully enforce our rights with respect to such trade secrets, and you expressly agree that anything we designate as a trade secret will be considered as such under the Defend Trade Secrets Act and any other applicable state or federal laws protecting trade secrets. You and your owners, officers, directors and managers, jointly and severally, agree that at all times during and after the term of this Agreement, you will maintain the absolute confidentiality of all such proprietary information and will not disclose, copy, reproduce, sell or use any such information in any other business or in any manner not specifically authorized or approved in advance in writing by us, provided that you may grant access to such information only to those officers, employees, agents, financing sources, attorneys and representatives of you to whom it is strictly necessary to disclose this information in furtherance of the business contemplated in this Agreement, but you will not disclose such information unless and until the recipient of the information has agreed to maintain the confidentiality of the information and not wrongfully use it. We may require that you obtain nondisclosure and confidentiality agreements in a form satisfactory to us from the individuals identified in the first sentence of this paragraph, other key employees, and other parties to whom information may be provided.

C. You must comply with all requirements of federal, state, and local laws, rules and regulations.

DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

6. The following provisions apply with respect to default and termination:

A. The rights and territorial protection granted to you in this Agreement have been granted in reliance on your representations and warranties, and strictly on the conditions set forth in Sections 1, 3 and 5 of this Agreement, including the condition that you comply strictly with the Development Schedule.

B. You will be deemed in default under this Agreement if you breach any of the terms of this Agreement, including the failure to meet the Development Schedule, or the terms of any Franchise Agreement or any other agreements between you or your affiliates and us or our affiliates. All rights granted in this Agreement immediately terminate upon written notice without opportunity to cure if: (i) you become insolvent, commit any affirmative action of insolvency or file any action or petition of insolvency; (ii) a receiver (permanent or temporary) of your property is appointed by a court of competent authority; (iii) you make a general assignment or other similar arrangement for the benefit of your creditors; (iv) a final judgment remains unsatisfied of record for 30 days or longer (unless superseded bond is filed); (v) execution is levied against your business or property; (vi) suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the premises or equipment is instituted against you and not dismissed within 30 days, or is not in the process of being dismissed; (vii) conviction of you, any of your owners or guarantors of (or pleading no contest to) any felony regardless of the nature of the charges, or any misdemeanor that brings or tends to bring any of the Trademarks into disrepute or impairs or tends to impair your reputation or the goodwill of the Trademarks or the Franchised Business; (viii) you fail to meet the development obligations set forth in the Development Schedule attached as Appendix B; (ix) you fail to comply with any other provision of this Agreement and do not correct the failure within 30 days after written notice of that failure is delivered to you; or (x) we have delivered to you or to your affiliates a notice of termination of a Franchise Agreement in accordance with its terms and conditions.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF PARTIES UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

7. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights granted to you will automatically terminate, and:

A. All remaining rights granted to you to develop Training Centers under this Agreement will automatically be revoked and will be null and void. You will not be entitled to any refund of any fees. You will have no right to develop or operate any business for which a Franchise Agreement has not been executed by us. We will be entitled to develop and operate, or to franchise others to develop and operate, training centers in the Development Territory, except as may be otherwise provided under any Franchise Agreement that has been executed between us and you and that has not been terminated.

B. After the termination of this Agreement you must not, directly or indirectly, represent to the public or hold yourself out as a present or former developer of ours.

C. You must take such action as may be necessary to cancel or assign to us or our designee, at our option, any assumed name or equivalent registration that contains any Trademark or words related to the Trademarks, and you must furnish us with evidence satisfactory to us of compliance with this obligation within 30 days after termination or expiration of this Agreement.

D. You must within 30 days of the termination or expiration pay all sums owing to us and our affiliates, including the balance of the Initial Franchise Fees that we would have received had you developed all of the Training Centers set forth in the Development Schedule. In addition to the Initial Franchise Fees for undeveloped Training Centers, you agree to pay as fair and reasonable liquidated damages (but not as a penalty) an amount equal to $25,000 for each undeveloped Training Center. You agree that this amount is for lost revenues from Royalties and other amounts payable to us, including the fact that you were holding the development rights for those Training Centers and precluding the development of certain Training Centers in the Development Territory, and that it would be difficult to calculate with certainty the amount of damage we will incur. Notwithstanding your agreement, if a court determines that these liquidated damages payments are unenforceable, then we may pursue all other available remedies, including consequential damages. All unpaid amounts will bear interest at the rate of 18% per year or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law, whichever is lower, from and after the date of accrual. In the event of termination for any default by you, the sums due will include all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, incurred by us as a result of the default. You also must pay to us all damages, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses that we incur subsequent to the termination or expiration of this Agreement in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any provisions of this Agreement.

E. If this Agreement is terminated solely for your failure to meet the Development Schedule and for no other reason, and you have opened at least 50% of the total number of Training Centers provided for in the Development Schedule, you may continue to operate those existing Training Centers under the terms of the separate Franchise Agreement for each Training Center.

If this Agreement is terminated under any other circumstances, we have the option, in our sole discretion, to terminate this Agreement and all Franchise Agreements and any other agreements between you or your affiliates and us, or to modify the Protected Territories under the Franchise Agreements that are not terminated. In addition, we will have the right, exercisable in our sole discretion, to purchase from you all or part of the assets used in the Training Centers that have been developed prior to the termination of this Agreement. Assets include leasehold improvements, equipment, furniture, fixtures, signs, and inventory for the Training Centers. We have the unrestricted right to assign this option to purchase. We or our assignee will be entitled to all customary warranties and representations given by the seller of a business including, without limitation, representations, and warranties as to (i) ownership, condition and title to assets; (ii) liens and encumbrances relating to the assets; and (iii) validity of contracts and liabilities, inuring to us or affecting the assets, contingent or otherwise. The purchase price for the assets of the Training Centers will be determined in accordance with the post-termination purchase option provision in the individual Franchise Agreement for each Training Center. The purchase price must be paid in cash at the closing of the purchase, which must take place no later than 90 days after your receipt of notice of exercise of this option to purchase, at which time you must deliver instruments transferring to us or our assignee good and merchantable title to the assets purchased, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances (other than liens and security interests acceptable to us or our assignee), with all sales and other transfer taxes paid by you. If you cannot deliver clear title to all of the purchased assets, or in the event there are other unresolved issues, the closing of the sale will be accomplished through an escrow. We have the right to set off against and reduce the purchase price by any and all amounts owed by you to us, and the amount of any encumbrances or liens against the assets or any obligations assumed by us. You and each holder of an interest in you must indemnify us and our affiliates against all liabilities not so assumed. You must maintain in force all insurance policies required pursuant to the applicable Franchise Agreement until the closing on the sale.

F. All of our and your obligations that expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding its expiration or termination and until they are satisfied or by their nature expire.

TRANSFER

8. The following provisions govern any transfer:

A. We have the right to transfer all or any part of our rights or obligations under this Agreement to any person or legal entity.

B. This Agreement is entered into by us with specific reliance upon your personal experience, skills and managerial and financial qualifications. Consequently, this Agreement, and your rights and obligations under it, are and will remain personal to you. You may only Transfer your rights and interests under this Agreement if you obtain our prior written consent and you transfer all of your rights and interests under all Franchise Agreements for Training Centers in the Development Territory. Accordingly, the assignment terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreements shall apply to any Transfer of your rights and interests under this Agreement. As used in this Agreement, the term “Transfer” means any sale, assignment, gift, pledge, mortgage or any other encumbrance, transfer by bankruptcy, transfer by judicial order, merger, consolidation, share exchange, transfer by operation of law or otherwise, whether direct or indirect, voluntary or involuntary, of this Agreement or any interest in it, or any rights or obligations arising under it, or of any material portion of your assets, or of any interest in you.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

9. The following provisions apply with respect to dispute resolution:

A. Applicable Law and Waiver. Subject to our rights under federal trademark laws and the parties’ rights under the Federal Arbitration Act in accordance with Section 9.B of this Agreement, the parties’ rights under this Agreement, and the relationship between the parties is governed by, and will be interpreted in accordance with, the laws (statutory and otherwise) of the State of Utah. You waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the rights and protections that might be provided through the laws of any state relating to franchises or business opportunities, other than those of the state in which your first Training Center will be located.

B. Arbitration; Mediation. Except as qualified below, any dispute between you, your affiliates, owners, guarantors or assignees and us or our affiliates, arising under, out of, in connection with or in relation to this Agreement must be submitted to binding arbitration under the authority of the Federal Arbitration Act and must be arbitrated in accordance with the then-current rules and procedures and under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association. The arbitration must take place in Salt Lake City, Utah. The decision of the arbitrators will be final and binding on all parties to the dispute, provided, however, that the arbitrators may not under any circumstances: (i) stay the effectiveness of any pending termination of this Agreement; (ii) assess punitive or exemplary damages; or (iii) make any award which extends, modifies or suspends any lawful term of this Agreement or any reasonable standard of business performance that we set. A judgment may be entered upon the arbitration award by any state or federal court in Utah or the state where your principal business address is located.

Before the filing of any arbitration, the parties agree to mediate any dispute that does not include injunctive relief or specific performance actions covered under Section 9.C, provided that the party seeking mediation must notify the other party of its intent to mediate prior to the termination of this Agreement. The mediation must take place in Salt Lake City, Utah. Mediation will be conducted by a mediator or mediation program agreed to by the parties. Each party will bear their own costs and will split the cost of the mediator. Persons authorized to settle the dispute must attend all mediation sessions. The parties agree to participate in the mediation proceedings in good faith with the intention of resolving the dispute if at all possible within 30 days of the notice from the party seeking to initiate the mediation procedures. If not resolved within 30 days, the parties are free to pursue arbitration. Mediation is a compromise negotiation for purposes of the federal and state rules of evidence and the entire process is confidential.

C. Injunctive Relief; Exemptions to Arbitration. You recognize that your failure to fulfill your obligations provided under this Agreement may cause irreparable damages to us or other franchisees. Therefore, notwithstanding Section 9.B above, it is mutually agreed that in the event of a breach or threatened breach of any of the terms of this Agreement by you, we will be entitled to an injunction restraining such breach, without showing or proving any actual damage, together with recovery of reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs incurred in obtaining said equitable relief, until such time as a final and binding determination is made by the arbitrators. The foregoing equitable remedies are in addition to, and not in lieu of, all other remedies or rights that the parties might otherwise have by virtue of any breach of this Agreement by the other party. Furthermore, we have the right to begin a civil action against you or take other appropriate action to collect sums of money due to us.

D. Venue. Any cause of action, claim, suit or demand allegedly arising from or related to the terms of this Agreement or the relationship of the parties that is not subject to arbitration under Section 9.B must be brought in the Federal District Court for the District of Utah or in the State courts located in Salt Lake City, Utah. Both parties hereto irrevocably submit themselves to, and consent to, the exclusive jurisdiction of said courts. The provisions of this Section will survive the termination of this Agreement. You are aware of the business purposes and needs underlying the language of this Section and, with a complete understanding of such purposes and needs, agree to be bound in the manner stated in this Section.

E. Jury Waiver. All parties irrevocably waive jury trial in any action or proceeding whether at law or in equity.

F. Waiver of Punitive Damages. You, your owners and guarantors and your affiliates and us and our affiliates agree to waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the right to or claim for any punitive or exemplary damages against the other and agree that in the event of any dispute between them, each will be limited to the recovery of actual damages sustained.

G. Attorneys' Fees. If you are in breach of any monetary or non-monetary material obligation under this Agreement or any related agreement between you and us and/or our affiliates, and we engage an attorney to enforce our rights (whether or not formal judicial proceedings are initiated), you must pay all of our reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and litigation expenses we incur. If you institute any legal action to interpret or enforce the terms of this Agreement, and your claim in such action is denied or the action is dismissed, we are entitled to recover our reasonable attorneys' fees, and all other reasonable costs and expenses incurred in defending against same, and to have such an amount awarded as part of the judgment in the proceeding.

MISCELLANEOUS

10. The parties agree to the following provisions:

A. Interpretation of Rights and Obligations. Whenever this Agreement provides that we have a certain right, that right is absolute and the parties intend that our exercise of that right will not be subject to any limitation or review. We have the right to operate, administrate, develop, and change the System in any manner that is not specifically precluded by the provisions of this Agreement. Whenever we reserve discretion in a particular area or where we agree to exercise our rights reasonably or in good faith, we will satisfy our obligations whenever we exercise Reasonable Business Judgment in making our decision or exercising our rights. Our decisions or actions will be deemed to be the result of Reasonable Business Judgment even if other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternatives are available, if our decision or action is intended, in whole or significant part, to promote or benefit the System generally even if the decision or action also promotes our financial or other individual interest.

B. Claims. You (and your officers, directors, owners and guarantors) expressly agree that no claim or cause of action may be filed or maintained against us and/or any of our present and former owners, officers, directors, employees, representatives, affiliates, parent companies, subsidiaries, predecessor, successors and assigns (each a “Franchisor Related Party”) arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the relationship established by this Agreement, the offer and sale of the franchise opportunity, the Equipment, and/or the operation of the Franchised Business unless such claim or cause of action is filed before the expiration of the “Limitations Period”. For purposes of this paragraph, the term “Limitations Period” means: one (1) year from the earlier of: (a) the date of the act, transaction or occurrence giving rise to the claim against us or a Franchisor Related Party; or (b) the date on which you (your officers, directors, owners and/or guarantors) knew or reasonably should have known of the facts or circumstances giving rise to the claim against us or a Franchisor Related Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Limitations Period is unenforceable under Utah law (or, in the event a court or an arbitrator determines a different state’s law applies, then under that state’s law), then the Limitations Period shall be equal to the shortest time period for a limitation of claims provision that is enforceable under the applicable law.

This contractual limitation of claims provision applies to all claims, whether based on contract, tort, statute, or any other legal theory. You acknowledge that this limitation of claims provision and the Limitations Period is a material inducement for us to enter into this Agreement and that it is intended to provide certainty and finality to potential disputes. To the fullest extent permitted by law, you hereby waive any longer statutory limitation period and agree that the foregoing limitation is reasonable and enforceable.

C. Severability. Should one or more clauses of this Agreement be held void or unenforceable for any reason by any court of competent jurisdiction, such clause or clauses will be deemed to be separable in such jurisdiction and the remainder of this Agreement is valid and in full force and effect and the terms of this Agreement must be equitably adjusted so as to compensate the appropriate party for any consideration lost because of the elimination of such clause or clauses. It is the intent and expectation of each of the parties that each provision of this Agreement will be honored, carried out and enforced as written.

D. Integration/Waiver. The preambles are a part of this Agreement. The headings of the Sections hereof are for convenience only and do not define, limit or construe the contents of such Sections. This Agreement, together with its Appendixes constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and embody and supersede all prior agreements and negotiations with respect to this subject matter. There are no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, except as contained in this Agreement. Nothing in this or in any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document that we furnished to you. No waiver by us of any breach by you, nor any delay or failure by us to enforce any provision of this Agreement, may be deemed to be a waiver of any other or subsequent breach or be deemed an estoppel to enforce our rights with respect to that or any other or subsequent breach. Subject to our rights to modify standards and as otherwise provided in this Agreement, this Agreement may not be waived, altered or rescinded, in whole or in part, except by a writing signed by you and us.

E. Notices. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any notice required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given (i) when received if delivered by hand; (ii) one business day after placement with a reputable national overnight carrier; or (iii) 3 business days after deposit if placed in the mail for delivery by airmail, postage pre-paid, and addressed to the respective parties at the following addresses unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other party:

F. Relationship of the Parties. You and we are independent contractors. Neither party is the agent, legal representative, partner, subsidiary, joint venturer or employee of the other. Neither party may obligate the other or represent any right to do so. This Agreement does not reflect or create a fiduciary relationship or a relationship of special trust or confidence.

G. Guarantee. All individuals or entities who, now or in the future, directly or indirectly, own a 20% or greater interest in the developer when the developer is a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, or a similar entity must execute the form of personal guaranty attached to this Agreement as Appendix C. In addition, if we are entering into this Agreement totally or partially based on the financial qualifications, experience, skills or managerial qualifications of any person or entity who directly or indirectly owns less than a 20% interest in the developer, that person or entity must also execute the form of personal guaranty. Furthermore, any individual or entity that at any time after the date of this Agreement, directly or indirectly acquires a 20% or greater interest in the developer must execute the form of personal guaranty within 10 days from the date such person or entity acquires the 20% or greater interest in the developer. Before approving and entering into any transaction that would make any person or entity the owner of a 20% or greater interest in the developer, you must notify such person or entity of the content of this Section.

H. Force Majeure. In the event of any failure of performance of this Agreement according to its terms by any party due to force majeure will not be deemed a breach of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, “force majeure” shall mean acts of God, State or governmental action, riots, disturbance, war, strikes, lockouts, prolonged shortage of energy supplies or any raw material, pandemics, epidemics, fire, flood, hurricane, typhoon, earthquake, lightning and explosion or other similar event or condition, not existing as of the date of signature of this Agreement, not reasonably foreseeable as of such date and not reasonably within the control of any party hereto, which prevents in whole or in material part the performance by one of the parties hereto of its obligations hereunder.

I. Indemnity. You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold us, our affiliates and our officers, directors, shareholders and employees harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, damages and liabilities, however caused, arising directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with, the development, use and operation of your Training Centers, as well as the costs, including attorneys’ fees, of defending against them (“Franchise Claims”). Franchise Claims include, but are not limited to, those arising from any death, personal injury or property damage (whether caused wholly or in part through our or our affiliates active or passive negligence), latent or other defects in any Training Center, or your employment practices. In the event a Franchise Claim is made against us or our affiliates, we reserve the right in our sole judgment to select our own legal counsel to represent our interests, at your cost.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed the foregoing Agreement as of the dates written below.

Notwithstanding anything which may be contained in the body of the Area Development Agreement to the contrary, the Agreement is amended to include the following:

1. Based upon the franchisor's financial condition, the Maryland Securities Commissioner has required a financial assurance. Therefore, the Initial Franchise and, if applicable, Development Fees owed by franchisees shall be deferred until the franchisor completes its pre-opening obligations under the franchise agreement. In addition, all development fees and initial payments by area developers shall be deferred until the first franchise under the development agreement opens.
2. Paragraph D of the Area Development Agreement is hereby deleted in its entirety.
2. Section 10.B is amended to provide that any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within three (3) years after the date of the Franchise Agreement.
3. Section 9.D of the Franchise Agreement is amended to provide that a franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
5. Any representations that require the waiver of the occurrence and/or acknowledgment of the non-occurrence of acts that would constitute a violation of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law are not intended to, nor shall they act as, a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
6. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
6. In all other respects, the Area Development Agreement will be construed and enforced in accordance with its terms.

4. Section 9.E is hereby deleted from the Area Development Agreement, as a waiver of trial by jury is considered unenforceable in the State of Minnesota.
5. Section 10.B is amended to provide that any claims arising under the Minnesota Franchise Law must be brought within three (3) years after the grant of the Area Development Agreement.
6. We will not require or accept the payment of development fee until the first business to be developed under the development agreement is opened.

ADDENDUM TO AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

This Addendum pertains solely to franchises sold in the State of North Dakota and is for the purpose of complying with North Dakota statutes and regulations. Notwithstanding anything which may be contained in the body of the Area Development Agreement to the contrary, the Agreement is amended to include the following:

1. The North Dakota Securities Commissioner has determined that it is unfair and inequitable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law for the franchisor to require the franchisee to consent to termination or liquidated damages. Therefore, the requirement that the franchisee consent to termination or liquidated damages is deleted from Section 7.D. and from any other place it appears in our disclosure document.

2. Notwithstanding Section 9.B of the Area Development Agreement, any arbitration proceeding must take place in the city nearest to the Authorized Location for the first Training Center opened under the Area Development Agreement in which the American Arbitration Association maintains facilities for arbitration or at such other location as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties.

3. You may not be required to consent that litigation be conducted outside North Dakota; accordingly, Section 9.D of the Area Development Agreement is hereby deleted in its entirety, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

Any cause of action, claim, suit or demand allegedly arising from or related to the terms of this Agreement or the relationship of the parties that is not subject to arbitration under Section 9.B must be brought in the Federal District Court or State court for the Authorized Location for the first Athletic Republic® franchise opened under the Area Development Agreement.

4. Section 9.E is hereby deleted from the Area Development Agreement, as a waiver of trial by jury is considered unfair and inequitable in the State of North Dakota.

5. No disclaimer, questionnaire, clause, or statement signed by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall be construed or interpreted as waiving any claim of fraud in the inducement, whether common law or statutory, or as disclaiming reliance on or the right to rely upon any statement made or information provided by any franchisor, broker or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor that was a material inducement to a franchisee's investment. Any statements or representations signed by a franchisee purporting to understand any fact or its legal effect shall be deemed made only based upon the franchisee's understanding of the law and facts as of the time of the franchisee's investment decision. Notwithstanding anything which may be contained in the body of the Area Development Agreement to the contrary, the Agreement is amended to include the following:

2. Section 9.D of the Area Developer Agreement is amended to provide as follows:

“Any provision in the Area Developer Agreement restricting jurisdiction or venue to a forum outside of South Dakota or requirement the application of the laws of another state is void with respect to a claim otherwise enforceable under the South Dakota Franchise Investment Act.”

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

37. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
38. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
39. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
40. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
41. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
42. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
43. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.

44. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.
45. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).
46. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
47. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
48. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
49. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
50. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.
51. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
52. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

53. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).

54. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

Athletic Republic
Park City, Utah

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Athletic Republic (the Company), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' deficit, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements" section of our report. We are required to be independent of Athletic Republic and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that these financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Athletic Republic's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Athletic Republic's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations

Athletic Republic (the Company) is the premier provider of scientifically based performance sports training programs throughout North America, Australia, and Japan.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant estimates and assumptions include the net realizability of loans and accounts receivable due from franchises and the fair value estimates of intangibles.

Cash

The Company maintains its cash accounts in various deposit accounts, the balances of which are periodically in excess of federally insured limits.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable generally represent amounts due from franchises for transaction fees, monthly franchise fees, equipment sales and other franchise services. Accounts receivable are stated net of a credit allowance and credits expected to be issued, reflecting the amount the Company expects to collect. Management considers the following factors when determining the collectability of specific franchise accounts: the age of the receivable, collateral, franchise credit-worthiness, past transaction history with the franchise, current economic industry trends and changes in franchise payment terms. Unpaid receivables with invoice dates over 30 days old bear interest at 1.5% per month. Balances that remain outstanding after the Company has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the credit allowance. As of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the credit allowance totaled $16,238.

Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost, determine on a first in, first out basis, or net realizable value, and consist of equipment, and related parts and supplies. A reserve for discontinued products and obsolescence is recorded using certain assumptions regarding excess or slow-moving inventories, current and future product demand, and market conditions. A change in any of these assumptions could result in a change in the reserve. At December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the reserve for discontinued products and obsolescence totaled $12,209.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation and amortization expense is computed by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets ranging from three - 15 years or for leasehold improvements the applicable remaining minimum lease term, if shorter. Expenses for maintenance and repairs are charged against operations as incurred. Renewals and betterments that materially extend the life of an asset are capitalized.

Long-Lived Asset Impairment

The Company evaluates the recoverability of the carrying value of long-lived assets whenever events or circumstances indicate the carrying amount may not be recoverable. If a long-lived asset is tested for recoverability and the undiscounted estimated future cash flows expected to result from the use and eventual disposition of the asset is less than the carrying amount of the asset, the asset cost is adjusted to fair value and an impairment loss is recognized as the amount by which the carrying amount of a long-lived asset exceeds its fair value. No asset impairment was recognized during the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets include trade names and trademarks and are amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of 15 years. Such assets are periodically evaluated as to the recoverability of their carrying values.

Customer Deposits

Customer deposits represent down payments from customers for equipment and software purchases for which delivery of the related equipment or software has not yet been made.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with income tax accounting guidance (ASC 740, Income Taxes). The income tax accounting guidance results in two components of income tax expense: current and deferred. Current income tax expense reflects taxes to be paid or refunded for the current period by applying the provisions of the enacted tax law to the taxable income or excess of deductions over revenues. The Company determines deferred income taxes using the liability (or balance sheet) method. Under this method, the net deferred tax asset or liability is based on the tax effects of the differences between the book and tax bases of assets and liabilities, and enacted changes in tax rates and laws are recognized in the period in which they occur. Deferred income tax expense results from changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities between periods. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance if, based on the weight of evidence available, it is more-likely-than-not that some portion or all of a deferred tax asset will not be realized.

Tax positions are recognized if it is more-likely-than-not, based on the technical merits that the tax position will be realized or sustained upon examination. The term more-likely-than-not means a likelihood of more than 50%; the terms examined and upon examination also include resolution of the related appeals or litigation processes, if any. A tax position that meets the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold is initially and subsequently measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon settlement with a taxing authority that has full knowledge of all relevant information.

The determination of whether or not a tax position has met the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold considers the facts, circumstances, and information available at the reporting date and is subject to the management's judgment.

The Company evaluates its tax positions that have been taken or are expected to be taken on income tax returns to determine if an accrual is necessary for uncertain tax positions. As of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the unrecognized tax benefits accrual is zero. The Company will recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense if incurred.

Revenue Recognition

Proceeds from the sale of a franchise are recognized as revenue when the Company has performed substantially all services for the franchise as stipulated in the franchise agreement, generally at completion of new franchisee training and the start of business by the franchise. The Company requires the entire franchise price to be paid upon execution of the franchise agreement and consequently recognizes deferred revenue until all revenue recognition criteria have been met. Monthly continuing franchise fees are recognized as revenue as earned. Other franchise operations income includes fees for other services provided to franchises which are earned as the services are provided. The Company sold seven franchises during the year ended December 31, 2025, and sold five franchises and four franchises during the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The table below shows the number of franchisees and licensees in operation as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 net of closures:

	2025	2024	2023
Franchises	45	41	36
Licensees	14	14	21
International	4	4	5
Total	63	59	62

Royalty Fees

The Company's royalty fees are based on a percentage of the franchisee's and licensee's gross sales subject to minimum amounts based on the types of programs offered as set forth in the franchise and license agreements. Over the last several years the Company has moved from a flat fee royalty offering to a percentage-based royalty. These fees are recognized as revenue by the Company in the period to which the billing to the franchisees and licensees relates.

Other Revenues

For all other types of revenue, the Company recognizes revenue when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred or services have been rendered, the fee for the arrangement is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured.

Sales Taxes

The Company has customers in states and municipalities in which those governmental units impose a sales tax on certain sales. The Company collects those sales taxes from its customers and remits the entire amount to the various governmental units. The Company's accounting policy is to exclude the tax collected and remitted from revenue and cost of revenue.

Advertising Costs

Costs incurred for producing and distributing advertising are expensed as incurred. The Company incurred advertising costs of $210,165, $135,586, and $134,759, respectively, during the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2024 financial statements to conform to the 2025 financial statement presentation. These classifications had no effect on net earnings.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through March 4, 2026, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 2. Leases

Accounting Policies

The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease or contains a lease at inception. Leases result in the recognition of ROU assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheets. ROU assets represent the right to use an underlying asset for the lease term, and lease liabilities represent the obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease, measured on a discounted basis. The Company determines lease classification as operating or finance at the lease commencement date.

The Company does not combine lease and nonlease components, such as common area and other maintenance costs, in calculating the ROU assets and lease liabilities for its office buildings.

At lease inception, the lease liability is measured at the present value of the lease payments over the lease term. The ROU asset equals the lease liability adjusted for any initial direct costs, prepaid or deferred rent, and lease incentives. The Company has made a policy election to use a risk-free rate (the rate of a zero-coupon U.S. Treasury instrument) for the initial and subsequent measurement of all lease liabilities. The risk-free rate is determined using a period comparable with the lease term.

The lease term may include options to extend or to terminate the lease that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. Lease expense is generally recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company has elected not to record leases with an initial term of 12 months or less on the balance sheets. Lease expense on such leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Nature of Leases

The Company has entered into the following lease arrangements:

Operating Leases

The Company leases office space that expired during 2023, at which time the Company exercised the renewal option and extended the lease for an additional five years. Lease payments have an escalating fee schedule of a 5% increase each year. Termination of the leases is generally prohibited unless there is a violation under the lease agreement. A portion of the leased space is subleased to a franchisee in a sublease that expired during 2023, at which time the Company exercised the renewal option and extended the lease for an additional five years.

The Company has no material related-party leases.

The Company's lease agreement does not contain any material residual value guarantees or material restrictive covenants.

As of December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, the Company had patents with a gross carrying amount of $207,253 which have been fully amortized and continue to be used in the Company's operations. Accordingly, no amortization expense related to patents was recognized during the years ended 2025, 2024, and 2023.

Trademarks are considered to have indefinite useful lives, as there are no legal, regulatory, contractual, competitive, economic, or other factors that limit the period over which the trademarks are expected to contribute to future cash flows. As a result, trademarks are not amortized but are evaluated for impairment annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it is more likely than not that the asset is impaired. The gross carrying amount of the trademarks was $155,850, $155,850 and $157,237, respectively, as of December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023. Note 14. Management's Plans for Operations

The financial statements for the Company are prepared using the generally accepted accounting principles applicable to a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has invested in long-term franchise system improvements and technology, which has led to losses from operations.

During the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the Company experienced a net income of $94,490, and net losses of $716,485, and $751,216, respectively, due primarily to the investments being made into franchise systems, marketing, and technology, the add-back of deferred employer taxes and awarding fewer new franchise locations than projected.

Since the beginning of the 2020 COVID-19 crisis, the Company made significant changes to its service offering to improve franchise unit economics, expand into additional market segments, and changes to its expense lines to react to less-than-planned franchise sales. The Company's investments in improving system-wide performance were starting to be realized in 2024 with continued realization in 2025, with an increase of Average Unit Volume (AUV) of 6% and 14%, respectively; new center membership pre-sales consistently recognized 100 members within the first 100 days, with a new record set during 2024 by one center of recording 100 members in the first six days post open. Training centers benefited from the introduction of a new online scheduling and point-of-sale system, a new customer relationship management system for tracking and managing leads generated through customer acquisition and referral marketing, athlete assessment technology that captured, recorded and reported training video, force and power data, plus a reporting system to share athlete development data; and the release of center-specific, a real-time Key Performance Indicator (KPI) dashboard that allows owners to better identify business issues, set priorities and establish action plans.

During 2025, the Company continued its efforts to accelerate new training center openings and overall business scale, by transitioning in-house production of its Super Running Treadmill to Woodway USA, Inc. and outsourcing the manufacturing of its other proprietary equipment.

Note 16. Revenue from Contracts with Customers

Performance Obligations

A performance obligation is a promise in a contract to transfer a distinct good or service to the customer and is the unit of account in Topic 606. A contract's transaction price is allocated to each distinct performance obligation and recognized as revenue when, or as, the performance obligation is satisfied.

As a franchisor, the Company's principal business is to sell franchises, which provide scientifically based, performance sports training programs. Franchise rights may be granted through a franchise agreement that sets out the terms of the arrangement with the franchisee. The franchise agreements require that the franchisee remit continuing/royalty fees to the Company based on the monthly revenues of the franchisees. The franchise agreements also require certain, upfront franchise fees such as initial fees paid upon opening of a franchise, fees paid for Business Acceleration Products (BAP), and fees paid in the event the franchise agreement is transferred to another franchisee.

Equipment sales are distinct standalone transactions that take place between the franchisee and franchisor. Terms are FOB Shipping, title passes to franchisee when shipped. Installation services typically occur within the same week and are performed by the Company and reported separately. The franchisee is billed when the product is shipped for both the equipment and installation services. Install services are typically performed within a day or two of shipping. Any cutoff issues are expected to be immaterial as the Company typically does not ship equipment near year-end and any equipment in transit at year-end would have immaterial installation charges associated with it.

Franchising

The Company executes franchise agreements that set the terms of its arrangement with each franchisee. The franchise agreements require the franchisee to pay an initial, nonrefundable fee of $55,000 and continuing royalty fees. Royalty and marketing fees are subject to minimums and are paid weekly. In 2014, the Company moved away from percentage of sales to a fixed fee structure for royalties and marketing fee payments. In 2018, the Company returned to a percentage of sales structure to determine royalty fees. Direct costs of sales and servicing of franchise agreements are charged to general and administrative expenses as incurred.

Athletic Republic
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023

When an individual franchise is sold, the Company agrees to provide certain services to the franchisee, including on-boarding support, use of training protocols, site selection, systems implementation, business development, and design of a quality customer experience. The Company recognizes 60% of the initial fee when the agreement is signed, and certain franchise materials are provided. The remaining 40% of the initial fee is recognized as revenue when substantially all initial services required by the franchise agreement are performed, which is generally upon opening of a training center. Continuing fees are recognized as earned, with an appropriate provision for estimated uncollectible amounts charged to general and administrative expense.

Initial fees included in revenues for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 were $171,000, $72,000, and $129,000, respectively. Royalty fees earned during the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 were $597,019, $584,806, and $602,421, respectively.

The Company determined that the services they provide in exchange for upfront franchise fees, which primarily relate to pre-opening training and other services, are individually distinct from the ongoing services they provide to their franchisees. As a result, these pre-opening fees are recognized upon the franchise opening, and completion of the related training. Revenues for these upfront franchise fees are recognized on a straight-line basis, which is consistent with the franchisee's right to use and benefit from the intellectual property. Revenues from continuing fees and upfront franchise fees are presented within franchise revenues in the statements of operations. Correspondingly, the commissions related to franchise sales are recorded as an asset and are recognized over the expected life of the franchise agreement in "cost of revenues."

Revenue from equipment sales is recognized when the equipment is shipped, and the installation is complete.

Accounting Policies and Practical Expedients Elected

Advertising fund contributions and expenditures are reported on a gross basis in the statements of operations. The assets and liabilities held by the advertising funds, are reported as restricted assets and liabilities of advertising funds, respectively, and are included within the respective balance sheets caption to which the assets and liabilities relate. Additionally, advertising costs that have been incurred by the Company outside of the advertising funds are included within advertising expenses in the statements of operations. The Company is also applying an accounting policy election, which allows an entity to exclude from revenue any amounts collected from customers on behalf of third parties, such as sales taxes and other similar taxes we collect concurrent with revenue-producing activities. Therefore, revenue is presented net of sales taxes and similar revenue-based taxes.

The Company has elected to use the portfolio approach to evaluate contracts. As a practical expedient, a portfolio approach is permitted if it is reasonably expected that the approach's impact on the financial statements will not be materially different from the impact of applying the revenue standard on an individual contract basis. In order to use the portfolio approach, an entity must reasonably expect that the accounting result will not be materially different from the result of applying the standard to the individual contracts.

The Company has elected to use the right to invoice practical expedient. This practical expedient allows an entity to recognize revenue in the amount of consideration to which the entity has the right to invoice when the amount that the entity has the right to invoice corresponds directly to the value transferred to the customer. That is, the invoice practical expedient cannot be applied in all circumstances because the right to invoice a certain amount does not always correspond to the progress toward satisfying the performance obligation. Therefore, an entity should demonstrate its ability to apply the invoice practical expedient to performance obligations satisfied over time.
